Clergy Executive Session

Marriott Wardman Park, Washington, DC

Wednesday, June 1, 2016 | 2 p.m.

Bishop Matthews called the session to order. The Rev. Kenneth Jones, the oldest living clergy member of the Conference, offered the Invocation. The Bishop then called upon the Conference Secretary, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, to offer the Organizational Motion. It passed. The Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Connectional Ministries, instructed those present on the use of the voting keypad. He said that only those mentioned in the Organizational Motion as having voting rights will be able to use their keypads for voting. Full Clergy Members had black dots on their keypads. Some Full Clergy Members indicated that their keypads did not have black dots. A brief recess was held while the problem was corrected.

The Dean of the Cabinet, the Rev. JW Park, gave the Cabinet's response to Disciplinary Question 17. Bishop Matthews then called upon the chair and vice-chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Rev. Charles Parker and the Rev. Ianther Mills, to lead us through the Disciplinary Questions regarding the clergy. Questions 18, 21a and b (after the deletion of Thomas E. Meyer from the Baltimore Metropolitan District), 25, and 26.b were approved.

The following candidates for membership as Provisional Deacons (Question 28.a) were approved: Kathy Barna and Martina Martin. The following was not approved: Tara Morrow. The following were approved as Provisional Elders (Question 28.b): Patricia Abell, Lillian Boyd, Alexis Brown, R. Lorraine Brown, Sandra Hetz Burchell, Mark Groover, Brenda McIlwain, Taysie Phillips, and Iranice Reddix.

Question 32, parts a and b, listed those elected as members in full connection. The following were affirmed by the body: as Deacon: Julie Marie Wilson; as Elder: Bernadette Althea Armwood, Adam Briddell, Michael Bynum, Angela Flanagan, Katie Jean Grover, James Johnson, Lisa Ann Jordan, Tiffany Patterson, Beth Ludlum, Bonnie McCubbin, Dae Sung Park, Twanda Prioleau, Shannon Sullivan, Theresa M. Thames, Braulio Torres, Wendy van Vliet, Marvin Wamble, Jennifer Webber, Doratha (Dottie) Yunger. All of these, except Theresa Thames, whose orders from the American Baptist Convention are to be recognized during the Ordination Service on June 4, 2016, were approved for ordination as Elders (Question 34.a). John Hayward Dean was discontinued as a Provisional Member by expiration of the eight-year limit (Question 42.a). Two names were approved for withdrawal to unite with another denomination (Question 46.a): LaDelle Brooks and Jason Shank. Five people were approved for voluntary leave of absence. They are listed in Question 50.a. Likewise, eight people were granted medical leave. Their names appear in Question 52.

Question 53 listed the Members in Full Connection who have retired. Those listed were approved by the body (see page 320 in this journal). Their names were read and those present were recognized the following day during a plenary session. Likewise, the retiring Local Pastors listed under Question 56 were to be recognized the following day.

Question 64 was approved by the body. Question 73, parts a and b, concern Associate Members, Elders, and Deacons who are approved for less than full-time service. The body approved those listed.

Question 77 lists Provisional and Full Elders who are appointed to Extension Ministries. Part c of the question requires a vote; the body approved those listed.

The body then approved the report, as corrected and amended in its entirety. The full report can be found on pages 294 to 330 of this journal, except for Question 76, which is found on pages 59 to 204.

Laity Session

Wednesday, June 1, 2016 | 7:30 p.m.

The Laity Session opened with greetings from Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin who introduced the District Lay Leaders.

Charlie Moore, Council of Finance and Administration, introduced the speaker for the evening, Dr. Munashe Furusa, the fourth Vice Chancellor of Africa University, who was accompanied by his wife and his son. Dr. Furusa brought greetings from Africa University, which he referred to as “your university,” and thanked the Baltimore-Washington Conference for its “unwavering and generous support” on behalf of the students and faculty. He added that Bishop Matthews, the first lady, lay leaders and pastors represented some of the strongest supporters of Africa University.

In his message, Dr. Furusa shared that the role of laity is to share with the world the love and grace of God. The church is made more effective when we bring people into the Kingdom of God. He declared that “the time for pew-sitters is over.” 1 Peter 2:9 reminds us that we exist for God, not ourselves.

The presidents/chairpersons of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, the Young Adult Council, the United Methodist Women, and the United Methodist Men gave reports. Becky Price reported that more than 5,000 youth attended ROCK 2016. Sandra King-Shaw shared where the Certified Lay Ministers (CLMs) program has been and where it is going and thanked Bishop Matthews and Jo Chesson, Vibrant Communities Project Manager, for their support of the program. She introduced 18 people who finished the two-year course and shared that several CLMs have been called to ordained ministry. For the first time, there is at least one CLM in every district. She also recognized the program instructors.

First Plenary Session

Thursday, June 2, 2016 | 8 a.m.

Bishop Matthews introduced the Bible Study leader, Bishop Young Jin Cho of the Virginia Annual Conference. Bishop Cho chose Luke 18:18-25, commonly referred to as the story of the rich young man, as his text. In the text, Jesus tells the young man that he lacks one thing.

Bishop Cho told us that the church is in a time of major challenge. Leaders, like the young ruler in Luke 18, are wondering what to do. But easy answers won’t alter the narrative of uncertainty and decline. Putting new bandages on old wounds, or just working harder, won’t meet the church’s challenges.

The bishop asked those gathered some demanding questions: Is our church led by the Holy Spirit? Do we truly honor the lordship of Jesus Christ?

Bishop Cho asked what is it that we as the church of today lack. He said, “We are too confident in ourselves to rely on the hope of the risen Christ. This is the fundamental problem — a lack of total trust and dependence on God.”

Too often, rather than recognizing that salvation is God’s business, we in the church take over and allow only brief consultations with God. Many churches are “pneumaphobic” — allergic to the urgings of the Holy Spirit.

Referring to the Conference theme of “You Have the Power,” Bishop Cho concluded that reliance on God can create new life, and spiritual and relational vitality. Such a renewal will indeed empower us and our churches.

At 8:30 a.m. Bishop Matthews called to order the 232nd session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. The Rev. Mary Jo Sims, Conference Secretary, read the Organizational Motion. It passed. The Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Connectional Ministries, demonstrated the voting keypad. The Rev. Bruce Jones made a motion that the keypad be reserved for “serious votes.” It passed.

Jen Ihlo, Chair of the Conference Rules Committee, quizzed the body on some conference rules and then reviewed the process for selecting an episcopal candidate. Afterwards, the Rev. Jim Miller, chair of the Episcopacy Committee, recognized the episcopal transitional team.

The body then viewed a video about the gift to fund a health and fitness center at Africa University honoring Bishop Matthews. The Episcopacy Committee presented a gift of appreciation to Mrs. Barbara Matthews. Dr. Munashe Furusa, Vice-Chancellor of Africa University, greeted the body. The Episcopal Committee presented gifts to him and his family. The Conference United Methodist Women gifted Africa University with 150 prayer and lap shawls for use by its faculty and students.

The Korean Delegation was introduced by the Rev. JW Park, Dean of the Cabinet. Each member of the delegation greeted us. A highlight of their presentation was “Melody” Park, a delegation member, singing “You Raise Me Up.” A sharing of gifts followed, including the Rev. Emora Brannan presenting Bishop Matthews with an inscribed copy of Marilyn Southard Warshawsky’s new biography about the Rev. John Franklin Goucher, who funded the first Methodist mission to Korea.

The Rev. Joe Daniels, Superintendent for the Washington District, introduced D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser. Mayor Bowser acknowledged the many challenges the city faces and then added, “I’ve counted on support from the faith community to meet all these challenges.”

Pastor Gay Green-Carden presented the Conference Nominations and Leadership Report. The Rev. Sarah Schliekert pointed out that according to ¶2601 of our conference policies, staff serves on committees with voice but no vote. She noted staff listed as members of some DCOMs and BOOM. Conference staff serving on committees will be noted accordingly. The Rev. Mary Kay Totty was added to the MROC. The Rev. Bryant Oskvig asked about diversity regarding age and ethnicity. Green-Carden noted that the Nominations Committee has a matrix it follows. A correction to BOOM membership was noted: Lynne Wilmer was deleted and Merle Bayne added. The body approved the report.

Recognition was paid to the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, outgoing Conference Secretary, and to Cynthia Taylor, who will assume that role on July 1. Sims thanked the bishop for asking her to serve and the conference staff and leadership for their support. She announced that the 2016 journal will be dedicated to the late Rev. Al Clipp, Conference Secretary from 2005 to 2009.

Those clergy who serve in Extension Ministries came forward, giving their names and ministry contexts. Delores Martin, chair of the 2016 General/Jurisdictional Delegation, presented the members of the delegation, who introduced themselves. The delegation announced their endorsement of the Rev. Cynthia Moore-Koikoi as Episcopal nominee. The body then viewed a video report of General Conference.

Second Plenary Session

Thursday, June 2, 2016 | 2 p.m.

Bishop Matthews called upon the Rev. Evan Young, Superintendent of the Annapolis District, to open the session with prayer. Afterwards, we recognized Stanley J. Thurston, the Conference Musician, who the previous night had received the prestigious 2016 Ovation Award for Outstanding Contribution to Choral Music. The Rev. Cedric Bridgeforth, chair of Black Methodists for Church Renewal, also greeted us.

Then the Rev. Ed Grove introduced the Rev. Jeff Allen, an Elder in the West Virginia Conference and Executive Director of WV Council of Churches. Allen shared some of the ongoing needs of the people of West Virginia and what churches there are doing to address those concerns. Dr. Cheryl Walker of the General Board of Discipleship then presented the One Matters Award to the Cumberland-Hagerstown District. Cumberland-Hagerstown District has increased its professions of faith, baptisms, and new members. The Rev. Conrad Link, the district’s superintendent, accepted the award on its behalf. Ms. Jessica Love, a graduate of Rust College, spoke to us about the Black College Fund.

Bishop Matthews then called upon the body to offer additional nominations for the Conference episcopacy candidate if anyone so desired. Several clergy were nominated; all declined. The Rev. Cynthia Moore-Koikoi, the Delegation's episcopal candidate, addressed the assembly. When the ballots were counted, Moore-Koikoi was affirmed as the Conference candidate for the episcopacy.

The Revs. Charles Parker and Ianther Mills presented the BOOM report. The candidates for ordination came forward and the Bishop asked them the Historical Questions. The candidates for commissioning and provisional membership were also presented. Then the retired clergy were introduced. Those names are listed under the Business of Annual Conference, Questions 53.a, 54.a and 56, found on pages 312-320 of this journal.

Young Adult Council chair Raimon Jackson introduced the Connectional Ministries report by asking in song, "How great is our God?" In response, Nora Meeks, a preteen from Silver Spring UMC, shared her experiences while on a mission trip to Zimbabwe. During the presentation, the Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, Director of Connectional Ministries, talked about the transformational missional power of our connectional ministry through various teams, campus ministry, camping and retreat facilities, and our local churches.

Logan Alley, a member of Foundry UMC, was introduced. Alley, who works with the homeless, was commissioned as a Deaconess at General Conference. Newly commissioned missionaries Chuck and Aaron Vanderommers, who serve in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and the Rev. John Calhoun, the Northeastern Jurisdiction Missionary Advocate, were recognized.

The Rev. Jackson Day, chair of the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, said that participants in the health plan will have more options under new provisions. He also explained a surplus redirection that addresses the shortfall of the retiree medical insurance fund. The Rev. Ann Laprade, chair of Council on Finance and Administration, told the conference that we have the highest apportionments collection rate in 15 years (91.7%). This year, our income matched our expenses. Laprade said that moving forward, the CFA has three long-term goals: (1) to minimize long-term debts and obligations; (2) to replenish exhausted reserves; and (3) to keep cost controls in place. The body approved the recommendations presented by CFA. The body also voted approval of the recommendations made by the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. (See page 494 of this journal).

Chair of the Commission for Equitable Compensation, the Rev. Jim Johnson, made the following recommendations: a 2% increase for minimum salary for full time clergy, to $42,303; housing would remain the same at $19,866. These recommendations were approved by the body.

Then Laprade placed in nomination the name of Paul Eichelberger as treasurer of the conference for the next quadrennium. The vote was unanimous in favor of Eichelburger continuing as Conference Treasurer. Conference Secretary Sims placed into nomination the name of Thomas Starnes as Conference Chancellor. The body approved Starnes.

The Rev. Melissa Rudolph made the following motion: "Whereas, the church rate is the same for all [health insurance] plans, [and] whereas, plan deductibles cannot be shared when clergy spouses are forced to participate in separate plans, and the total burden shared by the churches and the clergy is greater than the cost of the plan themselves, [and] whereas, the number of clergy couples, particularly those supporting young families, is a minority in the BWC, I move that clergy couples be permitted to have the option of being on the same plan if they so choose, with the churches they are serving participating at the same rate as all other churches and the clergy couple making up the difference for their chosen plan option." The motion was seconded. After some discussion, the bishop requested that the motion be referred to CFA, since it might have budget implications, and be reported on the following day.

Opening Worship

Thursday, June 2, 2016 | 7:30 p.m.

The Conference gathered for worship to the singing of “All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name.” The Call to Worship proclaimed that “You have the power!” The Opening Prayer reminded us of the various regions from which we come, asking that God “Bind us together in this place,” replacing hate with love, fear with hope, division with unity. The Scripture for the evening was Matthew 28:16-20, the Great Commission. The reading was interlaced with a Bibliodrama about the disciples gathering at still “another mountain.”

In his sermon, Bishop Matthews returned to familiar, yet urgent themes. He reemphasized the priorities he had established four years ago when he first arrived as our episcopal leader: to make every church a prayer station, for each church to bring one person to Christ, and for each church to partner with a school in its ZIP code. Bishop Matthews urged all present to remember the power inherent in prayer: “Scripture reminds us to ask and it will be given, to seek and you will find.”

The bishop also reminded us of the importance of bringing new people to Christ. If folks aren’t coming to our churches, then our churches need to go out and find them: “If we are not intentional in creating pathways of bringing people to Christ, we are not being faithful to the Gospel,” he said. We need to move away from merely loving the architectures of our wonderful old buildings into loving something more.

“When was it,” the bishop asked, “that you told somebody about how God has been working in your life? Have you been blessed to be a blessing to someone else?”

Real church is something more than just coming to a building on Sunday mornings. In a passionate plea, the bishop challenged us to remember that many children go to bed each night without someone caring enough about them to read to them. Such children need the church to give its time and energy so that we can “be a ray of light and hope.” The time for such action is now. Bishop Matthews told the gathering: “You have the power. Keep on loving people in Jesus’ name; keep on tearing down walls that destroy people; and truly love the hell out of each other.”

The offering followed. The monies collected help in funding a health and wellness center at Africa University that will honor the bishop. The evening’s offering totaled $21,996.

A Service of Word and Table followed. In the Benediction, the bishop proclaimed, “Go forth in peace, knowing that by the power of God Almighty, you have been created, good and wonderful; by the power of Christ, you have been redeemed and reconciled; and by the power of the Holy Spirit, you have been sanctified and strengthened for the journey ahead. You have the power. Now, go!” Those present responded with a resounding, “Amen!”

Bible Study

Friday, June 3, 2016 | 8 a.m.

In the second part of the Conference Bible Study, Bishop Cho of Virginia turned to Luke 11. One of Jesus’ disciples asks him to teach them to pray. Today, we United Methodists need to make a similar request. “Prayer is the essence and foundation of our faith. Being a Christian is more than becoming a good person. It is more than a culture. Being a Christian means having a relationship with a living God. . . . Faith as knowledge needs to be transformed into faith as relationship,” said Bishop Cho.

Prayer will help create more vital churches. The bishop challenged those gathered to spend at least an hour each day in spiritual disciplines such as prayer. “We cannot do our ministry effectively and fruitfully with our own strength only. We need to kneel down before the Lord and humbly seek the power of the Holy Spirit. . . . Just saying hello to God a couple of times a day at the table is not enough. Our prayer needs to go deeper.”

According to the bishop, the church is always looking for newer and better methods, plans, and organizations to advance itself. But what the church needs is women and men who the Holy Spirit can use.

Claiming to be too busy “is ridiculous.” Cho asked, “Are we busier than Jesus was? Probably not,” he said. “Day and night Jesus prayed. We need to pray deeper, harder and longer. We need to ask Jesus: ‘Lord, teach us to pray’ . . . If we are facing serious situations, we need serious prayer.”

Third Plenary Session

Friday, June 3, 2016 | 9 a.m.

Bishop Matthews thanked Bishop Cho for the Bible Study. The Committee on the Episcopacy presented Bishop and Mrs. Cho and Bishop and Mrs. King with gifts. Bishop King, the episcopal leader for the South Georgia Conference, will serve as the preacher for both the Memorial and Ordination services. He greeted us.

The bishop summarized where we were regarding the motion that the Rev. Melissa Rudolph had made the previous day and how we would proceed. Rev. Ann Laprade, chair of CFA, announced that the council had met and determined that the policy requested by Rudolph is actually already in place. Since 2014, clergy couples with children have been able to consolidate their coverage under a single Healthflex account. Despite that, not everyone took advantage of this option.

Since existing measures could be used to help alleviate some of their financial burden, the Rev. Deborah Scott made a substitute motion that was subsequently perfected by the body. The final motion, which passed overwhelmingly, reads: “The Baltimore-Washington Conference Council on Finance and Administration and health representatives will host a meeting before Sept. 1, 2016, and annually thereafter, to address clergy couples’ concerns surrounding health care and make sure all are properly enrolled in one health care plan. It shall remain the policy of the Annual Conference for clergy couples to have the option to remain in one policy.” The Conference will also ensure its database is able to identify and track clergy couples.

Bishop Matthews said that realizing the discussion, rightly so, had been emotional, he called upon District Superintendent Evan Young to offer a prayer before we transitioned into the Service of the Saints.

Service of the Saints

When family and friends of the departed saints had gathered in the front, Bishop Matthews read the familiar words of the Call to Worship: “Dying, Christ destroyed our death. Rising, Christ restored our life.” Following the singing of “For All the Saints,” Bishop Joseph Yeakel led the Litany and Bishop Felton Edwin May read the Scripture, Romans 8:31-38. After a gift of special music, Bishop James King read John 14:1-4.

In the sermon that followed, inviting the congregation to recall the past, Bishop King asked, “What would Jesus say to you today? Or to those we remember this day, what would Jesus say? I don’t know,” he said, “but I think Jesus would say, ‘Twinkle.’” As a child, Bishop King sometimes walked home from his father’s dry cleaning business across a cornfield after dark. His mother placed a light on the porch to guide him through the field. Bishop King asked, “In the name of the saints who have gone before us, is your light shining bright so someone can see the way home? . . . The saints were born to shine,” Bishop King said, “and I believe they are shining and living on through the light in our faith community.”

The Conference Secretary, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, then read the names of the bishop and bishops’ spouses who had died during the previous year. We remembered with thanksgiving and in celebration the following:

Bishop William Morris

Mrs. Eunice Jones Matthews

Mrs. Julia Wilke

Over the quiet musical background of “Come and Fill Our Hearts,” Sims read the names of the clergy who had died during the last year:

Rev. Edwin Bangs

Rev. Milton Walter Benny, Jr.

Rev. Morris Bratton

Pastor Carroll Brown

Rev. David C. Casey	Rev. David Cho
Rev. Al Clipp	Pastor Walter Cox
Rev. Leonard Felton	Rev. Patti Smith Fenske
Rev. Lillie Gray	Rev. Jessie Lee Griffith
Rev. Marguerite “Peggy” Groseclose	Pastor Lester W. Hall
Rev. Bruce Haskins	Rev. Ed Heydt
Pastor Walter Leonard Hill	Pastor Karen Jones Johnson
Pastor Norman Kemmerer	Pastor Marianne Lamark
Rev. George M. Manhart	Rev. Ellen Barnes Muller
Rev. William Nelson	Rev. William Peters
Rev. Stephen Rettenmayer	Rev. Betty Roche
Pastor Thomas Scheel	Rev. Donna C. Snodgrass
Rev. Richard D. Thompson	Rev. Jimmie Ward
Rev. Robert “Bob” Zimmerli

In similar fashion, Sims read the names of clergy spouses who had passed on since the last Conference session:

Frances B. Allis	Jean Barrett
Mary Blair Bucheister	Thomas “Tom” Buzby
Lillian Chukla	Roberta Funk Dorsch
Joyce Smith Earp	Virginia Lovella Evans
Laura Jester	Harriett Johnson
Lucille E. Kemper	Marlene King
Kathryn Lewis	Ronald Ellworth Moon
Ralph Morgan	Maxine Mote
Darryl Nelson	Marlee Richardson
Margaret Roper	Mary Catherine “Mary Kay” Shannon
Christine Umstead Sharpe	Margaret “Peggy” Smith
Belle W. Sunderland	Virginia Varner
Arlene Elizabeth Veith	Bobbie Walker

Likewise, those gathered remembered the departed children of clergy. These children had shared their parents with the congregations of the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

Also with thanksgiving and in celebration, Sims read the names of lay members of Annual Conference who had died during the year:

Bernice Brooks	Marilyn Emerson	Pete Fauconnet
Dave Hamill	Kenneth Steward

Sims also made special mention of Alyce Dixon.

As Sims read the names, family members or District Superintendents Joe Daniels and JW Park came forward and lit candles in memory of the departed saints. Others stood in memory as each name was read. At the close, Sims invited all within the Conference who had experienced the death of a loved one to stand as we remembered with praise and thanksgiving lives well lived and service well rendered.

Bishop Matthews then offered a closing word of prayer. The families recessed and the congregation departed to the singing of “This Little Light of Mine.”

Fourth Plenary Session

Friday, June 3, 2016 | 2 p.m.

At 2:00 p.m., Bishop Matthews called to order the last plenary session of annual conference. After the Rev. Evan Young offered a prayer, the Revs. Deb Scott and Sarah Schlieckert introduced revised Resolution #4, policy to be activated in the case of the death of a pastor while serving as the appointed pastor of a local church, which had been distributed to those in the gathering. Kelly Robier offered an amendment to strike the words “secure (with possible office lock changes) and” from the proposal. It did not pass. Other amendments were offered. The question was raised: had legal counsel reviewed the document? A request was made that the conference chancellor review the document. The Rev. Laura Easto moved to refer the resolution to the Cabinet. The motion was seconded. That motion did not pass. A motion was then made to refer the proposal to the Conference Chancellor. That motion passed.

Revs. Scott and Schliekert then introduced the Resolution #3 concerning loans to pastors, church staff and volunteers. The resolution passed. Next, Scott introduced Resolution #5 to require the District Superintendent to review a church’s annual financial statements with an incoming appointed pastor prior to the pastor’s assumption of duties, and to perform a periodic review with all continuing pastors. That resolution also passed.

Jen Ihlo, chair of Conference Rules Committee, presented the next resolution (#1), which amended the membership of the Commission on Nominations. The gathered conference approved the resolution.

Ihlo then brought before the body Resolution #2: To amend the rules of the session to codify the “Circles of Grace” process for consideration of certain resolutions during Annual Conference. Matt Scihel offered the following amendment: in the first paragraph, insert the word “solely” between the words “than” and “by”; re-letter the rest of section A, omitting lines 39 through 41; strike the words “following which ballots shall be distributed and collected by each facilitator and turned into the tellers” in section E; insert the following paragraph between sections G and H: “the process will continue using the BWC’s rules on parliamentary debate as outlined in ¶¶ 5410. g and .h through 16) and 18) through 29)””; change section H to section I. The motion was seconded. After some debate, the question was called. The amendment passed.

Bishop Matthews clarified that the amendment then became part of the main motion; it would require a two-thirds majority since the resolution would change Conference rules. A motion followed to refer the proposal to the Conference Rules Committee; it was defeated. The motion as amended was then before the body. The motion failed to get a two-thirds majority and thus did not pass.

After some discussion and friendly amendments, the Rev. Deb Scott perfected a motion that all resolutions must be on the agenda of the annual conference the day before the last full day of plenary session. The motion passed. Scott then moved that we gather and clarify all rules, policies and procedures into one place and then bring them to the Annual Conference Session next year. The Rev. Chris Owens made a friendly amendment that this information be posted on the Conference website. Jen Ihlo, chair of Conference Rules Committee, reminded the assembly this has been a goal of the Rules Committee and that Frances Tagoe, Conference Director of Human Resources and Benefits, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, Conference Secretary, and herself have been working on this the past year but that it has proven to be “an enormous amount of work.” When the vote was taken, the motion was approved.

Delores Martin, Conference Lay Leader, gave the Laity Report. She thanked Bishop Matthews for working so well with and loving the laity of the Annual Conference. She asked the District Lay Leaders to introduce themselves.

The Rev. Stephen Tillett rose to request that the Bishop reconvene the clergy executive session for the purpose of further discussion and reconsideration of the decision regarding Tara Morrow as a provisional member and commissioned Deacon. Tillett then made this request into a motion, which was seconded. The Rev. Mark Gorman pointed out that only someone from the prevailing side could make a motion to reconsider a vote. Tillett said that because he received a keypad with the wrong color dot, he could not say how he voted. Consequentially, the bishop ruled the motion out of order.

Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, Director of Connectional Ministries, then gave an abbreviated Global Partnership report. He introduced the new Coordinator for Hispanic Ministries, Emma Escobar, and the Rev. Stacey Cole Wilson, the new Director of Congregational Excellence. DS Rev. Edgardo Rivera gave a report on the Puerto Rico partnership, our partnership with Zimbabwe report was delivered by DS Rev. Joe Daniels, and DS Rev. Park reported on our partnership with South Korea.

The conference staff came to the front of the room. The Rev. Scott Shumaker addressed the assembly, sharing with us that he and his wife had struggled with trying to find help for their oldest son, Joshua, who suffered from drug addiction. The Shumakers were challenged to get the health care Joshua needed. Shumaker thanked the conference and its leaders and staff who have supported his family during their time of need. Joshua has now been clean for more than a year. Shumaker said, "If you know of someone who is struggling with drugs . . . you are not alone. The body of Christ is here for you." Afterwards, the bishop prayed for Shumaker and his family. Conference Secretary Sims then offered the closing motion, which was approved.

The session concluded in worship with the Service of Appointments. In the Call to Ministry, the bishop described the ministry of all Christians. The ministries of retirees were recognized and honored. Representatives of churches receiving new pastors and those pastors receiving new appointments vowed to enter into covenant with one another and to serve as partners in ministry. With loved ones surrounding them on the stage, Logan Alley and Jane Grays were commissioned as deaconesses. Grays had been consecrated for such servant ministry in 2014 and Alley at General Conference this past April. After Bishop Matthews and Bishop Violet Fisher had laid hands on them, the conference greeted them with applause. The newly licensed pastors were then recognized. The gathered conference prayed for them.

Bishop Mathews then thanked the districts superintendents for their ministries and leadership. He prayed for all those pastoral leaders hired or under appointment and then declared that the appointments for 2016-2017 are fixed as published and corrected. The service ended in the singing of "Bind Us Together." Bishop Fisher delivered the Dismissal with Blessing.

Bishop's Celebration of Ministry

Friday, June 3, 2016 | 7 p.m.

On the evening of June 3, 2016, the Baltimore-Washington Conference said farewell to one of its own beloved sons, Bishop Marcus Matthews. Bishop Matthews returned home to the Baltimore-Washington Conference four years ago to serve as our episcopal leader. After 42 years in active ministry, Bishop Matthews is retiring August 31. He will assume the office of Executive Secretary for the Council of Bishops on September 1, 2016.

With his beloved wife Barbara by his side, Bishop Mathews listened as family, friends, members from the local churches he had served, Annual Conference leaders, and colleagues paid tribute to his life and ministry. Retired Bishop Woodie White, a close personal friend, could not attend in person but sent a letter that was read by the Rev. Tony Love: "Marcus, you have excelled at every task given you by the church. I was privileged to offer a charge at your installation in 2004, which charged you to be a good bishop. But above all else, be God's bishop." Other episcopal tributes were offered by Bishops James King Jr., Felton Edwin May, Sandra Steiner-Ball, Joseph Yeakel, and Gregory Palmer.

A highlight of the evening was the news from Charlie Moore, who announced that the Conference had raised $300,000 in a love offering towards the building of a new health and fitness center at Africa University. The bishop had asked that no personal gifts be given to Barbara and him on their retirement, but that gifts go to the United Methodist-related institution of higher learning in Zimbabwe. Bishop Matthews, along with other leaders, traveled to Africa University the week after Annual Conference for its commencement exercises, and for the groundbreaking of the center.

Bishop Matthews, with Barbara by his side, thanked his family, his mother, his uncle, and many others. "Let me also thank this Conference," he said. "The BWC has been good to me. I never thought I had a bad appointment. Every appointment I had was the very best." The bishop thanked his staff and his Cabinet.

Joyful Noise, a Conference combined choir led by Tom Price, provided special music. At the close of the celebration, in praise of God and as tribute to one of God's bishops, the Rev. Edgardo Rivera played "Great is Thy Faithfulness."

Thank you, Bishop Matthews. Thank you.

Service of Commissioning, Reception and Ordination

Saturday, June 4, 2016 | 9 a.m.

At 9:00 a.m., Bishops Matthews, Fisher, Johnson, King, and Yeakel; Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin; the clergy of the Conference, and those to be commissioned, received or ordained, processed into the ballroom of the Wardman Park Hotel to the gathered congregation's singing of "All Creatures of Our God and King," and "Love Divine, All Love's Excelling." When all were in place, Bishop Matthews offered a Greeting and Opening Prayer. This was followed by the Recognition of Common Ministry and Reaffirmation of Baptism and the singing of "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

The conference lay leader and the chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Rev. Charles Parker, presented the persons to be commissioned, ordained and recognized. Bishop Matthews conducted the General Examination of Faith.

The Gospel text, Matthew 28:16-20, was read, followed by an anthem. Bishop James R. King Jr., the episcopal leader for the South Georgia Conference, preached on "Keep Moving." He advised the ordinands and those being commissioned, as well as all those in the congregation, to stay in motion: "There is no place to park." He said, "You can't just pull over and say, 'I've got it!'" Afterwards, we sang, "Take My Life, and Let It Be."

The candidates for Provisional Membership were examined and then each was commissioned. Kathy Barna and Martina Martin were commissioned as Provisional Deacons. Those commissioned as Provisional Elders include: Patricia Abell, Lillian Boyd, Alexis Brown, R. Lorraine Brown, Sandra Hetz Burchell, Mark Groover, Brenda McIlwain, Taysie Phillips, and Irance Reddix. Family members and friends stood in affirmation and silent prayer as the bishops laid hands on each candidate.

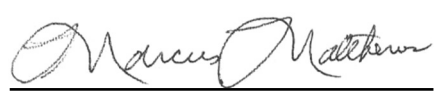

After the commissioning, we sang "Surely the Presence of the Lord." An offering was collected for Africa University.

Bishop Matthews then examined those candidates for ordination. Julie Marie Wilson was ordained Deacon. The following were ordained Elder: Bernadette Althea Armwood, Adam Briddell, Michael Bynum, Angela Flanagan, Katie Jean Grover, James Johnson, Lisa Ann Jordan, Tiffany Patterson, Beth Ludlum, Bonnie McCubbin, Dae Sung Park, Twanda Prioleau, Shannon Sullivan, Braulio Torres, Wendy van Vliet, Marvin Wamble, Jennifer Webber, and Doratha (Dottie) Yunger. Theresa Thames had her orders from the American Baptist Convention recognized. Family and friends stood in prayerful affirmation as the bishop laid hands on each of their loved ones.

Bishop Matthews then gave an invitation to those present to hear and respond to God's call to ministry. While the congregation sang, "Here I Am, Lord," District Superintendents and chairs of District Committees on Ministry greeted several who came forward to answer the call. After the Dismissal with Blessing, the bishops, the newly commissioned, ordained and received, the conference lay leader and the clergy recessed to the singing of "God of Grace and God of Glory."

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.7)?

Response from the Dean and the Cabinet. JW Park

We support and work closely with all of our clergy and congregations to assist them to become like Christ as they call, equip, send and support spiritual leaders to make disciples for the transformation of the world. Our goal, as John Wesley challenged each of us, is to move closer to perfection in our personal and professional lives all for the sake of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Through ordination, commissioning, and credentialing at various levels, the church affirms and continues the apostolic ministry through persons empowered by the Holy Spirit. Those who have sought to follow in the path of this tradition, especially as clergy in the United Methodist Church, have covenanted with each other to hold one another accountable to a lifetime of commitment and discipline. The Bishop and Appointive Cabinet have carefully reviewed the character and conduct of the clergy of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church in accordance with paragraphs 604.4 and 605.6 of the 2012 Book of Discipline and found that the majority of clergy are faithful in fulfilling their calling while at the same time exemplifying models of Christian character. Meanwhile there are some clergy that the Bishop and Cabinet are working with on issues of character and effectiveness in accordance with the provisions of The Book of Discipline.

VI. REPORTS

DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES

DISCIPLESHIP COUNCIL (CC)

“In the Baltimore Washington Conference, we are becoming more fully alive in Christ and making a difference in a diverse and ever-changing world.” (Vision of the BWC)

The purpose of the Discipleship Council is to “(a) function, as necessary, on behalf of the Annual Conference in between sessions; (b) ensure the Conference resources align to our vision, missions and critical issues; and (c) discern, develop, review, and evaluate the strategic direction of the Conference toward its vision and goals.”

The Ministry Relationship Oversight Committee (MROC), a standing committee of the Discipleship Council, was created by resolution in 2014 to review, recommend and oversee the process for entities seeking to establish a formal ministry relationship with the BWC. The committee has: 1) developed an application process and form; 2) worked with Communications to establish a page on the BWC website that organizations can use to get an overview of the process, communicate with MROC and submit an application; and 3) reviewed and presented to the Discipleship Council its recommendations on the first application received. An article on MROC appeared in The Connection with a link to the application and email address (mroc@bwcumc.org)

MROC is also responsible for working with organizations to develop ministry relationship agreements and monitoring them. They strive to ensure complete transparency in all aspects of the process. A current challenge is to identify and include on MROC individuals with legal and contract expertise. The membership of the MROC includes a Discipleship Council member.

The primary goals of the Discipleship Council this year are to establish ongoing dialogue with boards, committees and staff to obtain the information needed to carry out our purpose and to support the Resolution Perfection Process developed by the Rules Committee. We will continue to work with staff and the Transition Team in preparing for the episcopal transition.

The Discipleship Council Chair serves on the Rules Committee, special Budget Committee, and BWC Transition Team. The Council wishes to thank the BWC staff for their support throughout the year.

Cynthia Taylor, Chair

CONFERENCE BOARD OF LAITY (CC)

This year has proven to be very productive. The Board of Laity met a couple of times during the year and meetings were generally well attended. Since Annual Conference last year, we have read and witnessed some remarkable things. We welcomed a new District Lay Leader, Geoff Kaiser, of Central Maryland. Washington East celebrated the beginning of a new church, Community UMC, in St. Mary’s County that offers worship and fellowship to families and friends with special needs.

The Scouting Ministry Committee, chaired by Rev. Dr. Ken Lyons, reported that they enjoyed having a presence at ROCK and sharing their story of Scouting as an evangelism tool in our churches. The Bishop’s Scouting dinner was successful again this year. Rev. Chris Owens, the guest speaker, shared his personal story of how Scouting helped bring him into a relationship with God.

The Disaster Response Team focuses on preparedness for disasters at the local church level. The Conference has two trailers equipped for travel to a disaster site. The Conference produced a Disaster Response Manual for local churches. The Team is led by Rev. David Graves with the assistance of staff member Pam Bowen.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministry (CCYM) is progressing very strongly. The leadership consists of two-thirds youth and one-third adult leaders, and the membership is made up of youth from all eight Districts. The officers are: Lydia Ditzenberger, President, and Bianca Iannicelli, Vice President. The group's mission is to empower youth as world changing disciples of Jesus Christ. Nineteen of the members attended the BWC Annual Conference. They have regular meetings on the third Saturday of each month.

The School of Certified Lay Ministry, under the direction of Sandra M. King-Shaw, currently has 106 Certified Lay Ministers (CLMs). This includes members of the classes of 2013-2015, who completed the required two-year study and have been certified by their District Committees on Ministry. This figure does not include those CLMs who have accepted the call to ordained ministry. We continue efforts to foster a broader understanding of Certified Lay Ministry and how it can benefit clergy and local congregations. The sixth class (2015-2016) is mid-way through the session and was honored at the 2016 Annual Conference.

This year, the Conference was blessed to get a new Director of Lay Speaking Ministry, Julie Flinchum. The position had been vacant for a while. The Committee consists of seven District Directors. The team has set goals for making the processes more consistent throughout the Conference, getting the word out about Lay Servant Ministry opportunities to the clergy and laity, and recognizing the Certified Lay Servants at the annual conference laity session. There are currently more than 1,000 Certified Lay Servants within our Conference. A high priority of the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministry is to clarify and set a standard process for certifying Lay Speakers. Most of our Districts do not currently have Lay Speakers under the new 2012 Book of Discipline's guidelines. Our goal is to develop a clear and consistent process following the guidelines in the Book of Discipline. The mission of the Conference Committee of Lay Servant Ministry is to collaborate with each District Director to guide these laity through the process and equip them through training.

Chair, Board of Laity*

OVERVIEW OF CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

WE HAVE THE POWER OF THE CONNECTION

In the year when the connectional nature of our United Methodist Church came under severe strain due to our disagreements on the issue of human sexuality, it is gratifying to note that there are more things that United Methodists in the Baltimore-Washington Conference agree on than they don't agree on.

This year, I was honored to serve as the conference Director of Connectional Ministries. In this role, I am charged as the steward of the vision of the BWC, where I provide leadership to 34 distinct ministry and mission teams. In this role, I also oversee the resourcing of the conference's 640 churches, four campus ministries, and three camping and retreat facilities. I am an avid believer in the power of the global church and that is why I am so excited about our conference's partnerships in Zimbabwe, Eurasia, South Korea and Puerto Rico.

The power of our connectionalism is evident in our embracing of our goal beliefs and values for ministry. As United Methodists, we have one mission: To Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We observe two holinesses: Personal and Social holiness. We follow three simple rules: a) Do no harm; b) Do good; c) Stay in love with God.

As United Methodists, we focus on four areas of ministry:

- a) Developing principled and Christian leaders;
- b) Creating new places for worship for new people and revitalizing the old ones;
- c) Working with the poor by providing help and resources;
- d) Promoting global health by fighting killer diseases such as malaria.

We are able to do all these things because The United Methodist Church is a connectional church. As a connectional church, we have 131 Annual Conferences throughout the world; 13 million professing members; more than 41,000 local churches; about 56,000 clergy members; 309 hospitals and clinics and about 114 colleges and universities, sharing in ministry with one another, being in ministry together to the world.

This is what United Methodists do. This is who United Methodists are.

Locally, we celebrated the continued success of our Vibrant Communities, under the leadership of Rev. Tony Love, which creates New Church starts and new faith communities throughout the conference.

In order to have effective communities, we need a vibrant youth ministry and that is why we revamped the Conference Council of Youth Ministry. The youth met at West River to determine who they are as a group and what service they can offer to peers in the conference. As youth, they seek to “Support, Educate, Advocate, Resource and Represent all youth within the reach of our Conference as we help make disciples of Jesus Christ in order to transform our Conference and the world.” A resource they came up with addresses the need to take stress out of youth’s daily lives.

Similarly, the Conference Council on Young Adults, under the leadership of Raimon Jackson, challenged the conference to do more in involving the young adults in the ministries of the church. The conference sent a total of 12 young adults to various seminars and conferences to equip them for ministry.

We continued to support our missionaries serving in various parts of the world and our co-Secretaries of Global Ministries, Sharon Leatherman (deceased) and Jane Grays who continue to provide able leadership in this regard.

We further celebrate our missionary work by commissioning newly consecrated deaconess Logan Alley and Jane Grays, who was consecrated in 2014.

In health, we participate globally with other United Methodist churches in fighting malaria and as we saw at the General Conference, God is able!

Locally, we have worked with the Maryland Health Initiative to launch the Maryland Faith Community Health Network. As for the result of this network, dozens of our churches are among congregations of all faiths who have already agreed to sign up for the network that helps navigate our health services. With our participation, the Maryland Faith Community Health Network is proving to be a success and thereby significantly improving the health and well-being of many Marylanders.

We have worked with local foundations such as Jane Bancroft Robinson Foundation to offer grants that promote literacy, fight poverty and provide affordable housing for the poor.

We are putting our faith in action indeed.

Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, Director of Connectional Ministries

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY (CC)

The Board of Church and Society is entrusted with the ministry of justice in our annual conference. It is also our duty to share with local churches and districts information and resources so that they may also engage in acts of justice and advocacy.

In 2015, our board held our annual Maryland Legislative Advocacy Day with the United Methodist Women in Annapolis under the direction of Rev. Kevin Slayton, Advocacy Coordinator for the Conference. We also cosponsored Missionu with the United Methodist Women.

Our board learned more about and advocated for more just treatment of women and children, specifically related to labor and sex trafficking and domestic violence. Susan Burton of the General Board of Church and Society shared resources with our board on these issues and members shared those resources with others in their area. We also learned more about the environmental challenges facing our local waterways. Brook Harper from the Chesapeake Climate Action Network shared resources and invited members to get local clergy and churches involved in advocacy and action for cleaner water and other areas of climate justice.

One of the most significant actions our board was involved in was lead by Rev. Dr. Irance Reddix, a physician and clergy member of the board. In cooperation with Maryland's Healthcare for All, Reddix lead the charge for the development of Faith Community Health Networks throughout the state of Maryland. In addition to informational and strategy sessions around the state, Reddix was also instrumental in the development and implementation of the first such network in Baltimore, including a community healthcare center at St. Paul's UMC which opened early in 2016.

Additional actions of the board included working with churches and leaders in various regions of the conference, particularly the Southern, Western, and Baltimore regions on educating about and advocating for racial and economic justice.

The board, and its members, is always willing to help local churches with advocacy and education or training in how to engage in social justice ministries. Simply reach out to any board member or contact the chair.

The board also oversees Peace with Justice, with coordinator Ann Price at the helm. This includes both collecting the special offering and distributing grant funds for projects which focus on a particular social justice area. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and those working on projects designed to improve the lives of others are encouraged to apply.

Our board looks forward to continuing the work we have started in the year to come and we invite you to join us in the various opportunities for ministries of justice.

Rev. Julie Wilson, Chair

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES (CC)

The Baltimore Washington Conference is living out its belief that the word is indeed its parish. As a conference, we continue to participate in and make contributions to ministry in various parts of the world while still making a difference locally. We continue to make significant contributions to our missionaries, designated giving, and advances.

Through a collaborative effort that has been effected particularly by our Conference Co-Secretaries, Sharon Leatherman and Jane Grays, we have continued to be supportive of missionaries itinerating the conference area. They have ensured our missionaries have been well accommodated while here. Our Conference Associate Director for Ministry to the Poor, Rev Andrea King has been active in these efforts also.

Rev. Joan Carter-Rimbach has spearheaded our VIM efforts. She continues to keep the committee abreast of new and ongoing efforts.

We celebrated the retirement of Sandy Ferguson, past Conference DCM whose tireless efforts inspired all of us. We also celebrated the passing of the leadership baton by Rev. Cecil Mudede to Pastor Raphael Koikoi, Jr. Rev. Mudede led well in his time with us.

In 2016, we hope to bring a greater global ministry awareness to the Baltimore Washington Conference as we look to carry out our responsibilities as outlined in paragraph 633 of the Book of Discipline.

Pastor Raphael K. Koikoi, Jr.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY (CC)

This year, 2016, marks 200 years since the death of Francis Asbury (1745-1816) and 225 since the death of John Wesley (1703-1791). It is also the year in which we commemorate the foundation of Methodism in America (though we believe Robert Strawbridge's was already underway by 1766 when the John Street Chapel was organized in New York).

We are working with the British Methodist Church, our own General Commission on Archives & History and the Trustees of Lovely Lane UMC to remember these three anniversaries and especially that of Bishop Asbury.

We have in our archives 50 manuscript letters to or from Bishop Asbury and several manuscripts of Wesley and his contemporaries. Arguably the most important of these is the Ordination Certificate of Francis Asbury, signed and sealed by Bishop Thomas Coke at the Christmas Conference of 1784. We hope to put a selection of these manuscripts on exhibit in the Museum at Lovely Lane this year.

We have arranged for necessary conservation work on the Ordination Certificate and on a letter to Asbury from his mother, Elizabeth Asbury. The Conservation Center for Art & Historic Artifacts in Philadelphia, which is carrying out this work, will also create high quality facsimiles to be given by our Conference to the British Methodist Church.

We also support the efforts of the Conference and Lovely Lane UMC Trustees to preserve and interpret the Bishops' Lot at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, including replacement of the marble monument to Bishops Asbury, Enoch George (1747-1835), John Emory (1789-1835) and Beverly Waugh (1789-1858).

We also encourage groups and individuals to support this effort by contributing toward the fund set up by the United Methodist Historical Society of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. We also encourage support membership and planned giving to the United Methodist Historical Society which maintains the museum and library at Lovely Lane.

Archival Facility

We continue to work with the Conference and Lovely Lane UMC Trustees to bring our facilities up to standard.

Our archival vault was opened 40 years ago and its placement and configuration makes climate control and efficient storage a challenge. Four years ago, we were forced to replace the HVAC system but it has never been entirely satisfactory and we have supplemented with additional dehumidification equipment. Last summer, the supplemental dehumidifier broke down and the humidity rose the point that mildew developed on some material.

We have replaced the equipment and have inspected and wiped down material effected. We are indebted to Duncan Hodge, a Lovely Lane Church Trustee and a professional engineer, who has devoted much thought, time and labor to addressing this issue. As we move forward, we will need to address the need for additional vault space on site or for offsite storage.

Historical Data

Recent litigation has sparked an interest on the part of the Conference in rediscovering all the properties which were once local Methodist, Evangelical or United Brethren churches (and to which the Conference should have fallen heir under the trust clause.) It remains an immense task, but one made easier in the age of automation and the Internet.

Those Incredible Methodists, published by our commission in 1972, was to have been volume one of two, the latter to include the histories of local churches and charges. Rev. Edwin Schell, then Conference Historian & Archivist, surveyed local churches to begin this task. The immensity of the task soon became apparent, and the project was abandoned.

Last spring our Historian Dr. Brannan, and our staff, worked with the Stewardship Ministries staff to begin a database detailing the origin, location and disposition of local churches which have merged or closed. We hope to use our own data and other archival records to pursue this task, which is immense but essential to understanding our history. In organizing our material, we are indebted to two volunteers, both from Lovely Lane Church, for helping to sort this out. Carrie Harnick is a professional librarian and has almost completed the task of cataloging our library collection. Eleanor Packard has tackled our voluminous vertical files and also inventoried material in the vaults. Both volunteer several hours each week.

Historic Sites and Landmarks

The Commission thanks the Conference for its endorsement in 2015 of the resolution to designate the United Methodist Building on Capitol Hill as a United Methodist Historic Site. This designation has been made by the General Commission on Archives & History and the further designation of the building as a United Methodist Heritage Landmark is before the General Conference this year.

Robert Shindle, Director and Conference Archivist

COMMISSION ON DISABILITY CONCERNS (CC)

The Commission was quite active in 2015-16.

We completed the production of our conference video that features several BWC local churches in the four regions that are engaged in specialized ministries with people with physical, mobility, cognitive, and mental illness challenges. This video can be viewed on the Commission on Disability Concerns web page on the conference web site.

We conducted workshops at Leadership Days in the Western Region and the Baltimore Region in 2015 and have been invited to do so in all four regions in 2016.

We offered a display table at the Annual Conference session in May of 2015 and will do so again in 2016. The table featured materials about the 25th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, or the ADA, and many other resources and a bibliography of publications to assist local churches with their disability ministries. Materials to guide the creation of a Disability Awareness Sunday service for each local church, suggested for the first Sunday of February each year, are also available.

Our page on the conference web site is kept current with newsletters, announcements of trainings and workshops, and new resources to enhance the local church's ministry in the area of disability concerns.

Several programs have been presented to local and district UMW groups. Commission members attended the class on Disability Ministries and hosted a display table at missionU in the summer of 2015.

Representatives of the Commission attended the national meeting of the Association of Ministers with Disabilities, UMAMD, in Dallas in the summer of 2015.

A disability audit was included in all charge conference report packets for local churches this year so that local churches could take stock of the ways that they do or do not extend radical hospitality and full inclusion to all people with disabilities and their families.

The Commission has provided advice and is always willing to consult with local churches about their accessibility needs.

Rev. Nancy J. Webb, chair

COMMISSION ON SMALL MEMBERSHIP CHURCHES (CC)

The Book of Discipline 2012, Paragraph 645 stipulates there shall be in each annual conference a conference commission on the small membership church, or the responsibilities of the small membership church commission may be assigned to an existing or newly created multifunctional agency of the council or other structure that cares for the functions of support, nurture, and growth of small membership churches and their relationships to the conference, districts, and other local churches.

Clergy members serving on the Commission on Small Membership Churches are: Patricia Bittner, R. Lorraine Brown, George F. DeFord (chair), Barry Hidey, Conrad Link (DS), Maidstone Mulenga (Asst. to Bishop), Richard Oursler, Cheryl Rink, and Robert Walker, Jr.

A teleconference took place on Jan. 27, 2016. Rev. George F. DeFord, RE, served as the convener. In attendance were Pastors R. Lorraine Brown and Rick Oursler. Pastor Brown serves the Growing Seed Cooperative Ministry, Sykesville, MD, and Pastor Oursler serves Dorsey-Emmanuel/Wesley Chapel, Jessup, MD, while this writer serves Smith Chapel, La Plata, MD.

The purpose of the Commission on Small Membership Churches in the Baltimore-Washington Conference was discussed among the attendees. Out of our discussion the following points emerged:

- There needs to be a clearing house for information and resources to assist the pastors serving small membership congregation;
- Opportunities to come together in small group experiences similar to the disciple groups of a few years ago where there could be sharing with other pastors of small churches;
- There is an obvious need to prepare newly appointed pastors to small membership churches to facilitate their transition into the said type church rather than "parachute" them into the setting with minimal information;
- There is a need to provide small membership churches with the minimal technology that is required in this day and time for basic ministry;

- It was acknowledged that small membership churches struggle to meet financial minimums i.e. benevolences to the annual conference and pastoral support;
- There is a matter of self-esteem among some pastors that serve small membership congregation and a need for encouragement and support;
- The team agreed that we meet again by way of conference call on April 6, 2016, with the intention of doing some substantive work with a goal of submitting to the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference recommendations and a proposal regarding improving ministry to the small membership church.

George F. DeFord, RE, Convener

COMMITTEE ON DEAF MINISTRIES (CC)

Founded in 1895, Christ Deaf United Methodist Church is considered by many to be the “Mother Church” of Deaf Ministry within United Methodism. It is a culturally Deaf church which means that American Sign Language, the language of Deaf Culture in the United States, is the primary form of communication. Language accessibility is also provided for the DeafBlind, hard of hearing and hearing persons in all phases of Church life: worship, Bible study, fellowship, governance, and mission.

Over the past 120 years, Christ Deaf UMC has inspired many other Deaf and interpreted ministries throughout the United States. In the 1950’s a Deaf Choir was begun and it has traveled nationally and internationally over the years performing at churches, Deaf awareness programs, conferences, and community events. The choir is inspired to share their musical gifts of praise and love for God to the beat of a drum. In 2014 a Men’s Choir was added.

The Christ Deaf UMC Sign Choir was honored with an invitation to perform at the 2016 General Conference of the United Methodist Church which will be held May 10-20, 2016 in Portland, Oregon. While a great honor, the choir must raise approximately $20,000 for transportation and other expenses. This would be a daunting task for any choir but is particularly difficult for the Deaf Choir due to the persistence of audism. The hearing culture continues to undervalue the abilities and skills of Deaf persons; subsequently many Deaf persons are woefully under-employed. To raise awareness of Deaf Ministry and funds for the trip to General Conference, the Sign Choir has a rigorous touring schedule at other churches throughout Maryland and Washington, DC as well as other fund-raising events.

Christ Deaf UMC has recently become host to an immigrant church of Zotung refugees from Burma. Reaching out to the community, Christ Deaf UMC has opened its doors for their worship and fellowship. Partnering with Baltimore City Community College to host Refugee Youth Project, after school program where Burmese immigrant middle school students can receive homework help and support in English language learning and assimilation into American culture.

Bringing the Word of God to students at Maryland School for the Deaf in Columbia and Bible study at Foxwell Memorial Apartments is an ongoing ministry for Christ Deaf Church. These residents might not otherwise have access to small group fellowship and scripture study.

Christ Deaf UMC and Deaf Shalom Zone, partner with Towson University, to bring service learners and interns into the Deaf and DeafBlind Community. Events are hosted where students can engage in Deaf-led activities of service and socialization; Students are matched with Deaf individuals to learn more about their struggles, their successes, as well as their language and culture.

The church continues to be in ministry with other organizations such as

- Baltimore Association of the DeafBlind (BADB),
- Baltimore Governors Office of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (ODHH),
- English as a Second Language programs,
- Deaf Camps Inc., Deaf Young Adult Camp, DeafBlind Camp of MD Inc,
- ROCK, Youth Retreat and Rally
- Spiritual Retreat Weekends for Deaf

More churches than ever before are engaged in “Deaf Ministry” offering interpreters for part or some of their worship and activities, these are often volunteers, sometimes students. Even when professional interpreters are made available, there can still be a degree of separation as Deaf individuals try to access Church in a language not their own. English is not only a foreign language to the Deaf individual, but one which they rarely ever fully acquire. Through the faithful hard work of the Baltimore Washington Conference, assistance, support, and ministry development is available to these churches.

Magothy UMC of the Deaf was established in 1975 to serve the Pasadena area of Maryland. The church continues its commitment to creative and passionate worship, and active mission participation within our local community and beyond by hosting fundraisers for local and international Deaf missions work. Working cooperatively with Magothy UMC, the Deaf church continues to serve the community through the Door Step Mission, a food distribution program available to local families in need. Magothy Deaf Church also has Soup Fest each January, February and March to raise funds for several outreach ministries as well as DeafBlind Camp and Deaf Kids Camp. Magothy UMC of the Deaf strives to be a positive witness for Jesus Christ not only within the walls of the sanctuary, but also throughout the community and world.

The Deaf Shalom Zone provides case management connecting individuals who identify as Deaf, DeafBlind, or HardofHearing, and their families, with services. The case manager assists individuals to advocate for their own rights, apply for training and other programs, acquire and navigate technologies that ultimately support greater independence in their daily lives. DSZ also works to bring education and advocacy to the community. The food pantry, open during Sunday Fellowship is able to supplement the food needs of people struggling to access healthy food, but it also provides some pre-work experience for youth and developmentally delayed young adults hearing and Deaf.

The Methodist Campus Ministry at Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C. offers ministry to students, faculty, and staff on the campus of the only liberal arts university in the world for the Deaf. Regular Bible study builds understanding and community while encouraging attendees to be engaged in mission on the campus and in the surrounding community. The Methodist Campus ministry also works with the Office of Campus Ministries to provide ecumenical worship and service opportunities.

DeafBlind Camp of Maryland, Inc at West River United Methodist Camp Center. Each year, forty campers ages 18 - 90 years old come from all over the U.S.A. and Canada to spend a fun filled week of fellowship, socialization, reunion, and many planned trips and activities. Each camper is assigned a team of guides (titled support service providers or SSPs) for the whole week. Plans are now taking place for next year's camp at West River June 2016. The theme will be “Roaring 20's”, and we are looking forward to experiencing this unique time in history. This program is an opportunity for the DeafBlind to enjoy a full week out of their year fully able to access the world around them.

Rev. Sandi Johnson

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRY (CC)

The Committee on Native American Ministry (CONAM) continued its mission to make disciples for Jesus Christ by: 1) supporting Native American ministry and outreach; 2) promoting awareness of these ministries and of the Native American community residing within the bounds of our annual conference; and 3) developing leadership among the Native community and among those giving leadership to Native American ministry.

CONAM is very active with the Northeastern Jurisdiction Native American Ministries Committee (NEJNAMC). In 2015, the annual conference was held in Eastern Pa. The conference was a great success with 10 Conferences representative. One of the main discussions was the “Act of Repentance Service” that is to be presented in all of the annual conferences during the 2013-2016 period as presented at the Annual General Conference in 2012. Baltimore Washington Conference had theirs at the 2015 Annual Conference. The service arranged by Rev. Pat Allan. It was an outstanding effort. At the service’s end Bishop Matthews challenged the attendees to carry on this effort.

CONAM has two major ministries. One is a prison ministry whose purpose is to let the Native American inmates know that we love and care for them and their spiritual life by sending ten copies of INDIAN LIFE MINISTRIES, a Native American Christian newspaper which is published bi-monthly. Currently we are sending subscriptions to three prisons for males in Maryland and one prison for females in West Virginia.

The second major outreach ministry is the continued support of the WINS program that is sponsored by the American University in Washington, D.C. The program offers classes and internships for qualified Native American students during the fall, spring, and summer sessions. This year we sponsored a student at the 2014 Summer Session, and serving as their mentors and contacts away from home. We also had representatives at their Pow Wow, special luncheons and dinners and other activities. CONAM also provides an emergency fund for students who may have to return home because of a crisis or who have issues while in the D.C. area.

One of our goals for 2015 is to have the CONAM contact person’s name for each church on the churches in our Conference. It is very important to know the contact so that CONAM can keep each church informed about its work in the Baltimore-Washington Conference as well as the work in the Northeast Jurisdiction and the General Church. With God’s grace and guidance, we will continue to be the voice for the Native American community.

CONAM is small but hardworking and we would welcome anyone who would like to join a small, but mission-driven committee.

We give thanks to the Great Spirit for all the opportunities we have been given and eagerly anticipate building on what we do. Please continue to support the Native American Ministries Sunday Offering, half of which supports the ministry that we do and the other half goes to the General Conference to support other Native American ministries within the church.

CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES (CC)

Interpretation and resourcing are two major roles for the BWC Secretaries of Global Ministries. Last June, the conference officially elected a Co-Secretary of Global Ministries, Jane Grays. This enabled us make more contacts with local churches as we strive to share the crucial role that The General Board of Global Ministries has in our denominational system. GBGM recruit and train all missionaries who go out under the UMC banner. There are 300 missionaries serving in more than 60 countries as pastors, teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers, church planters, evangelists and a variety of other ways. We encourage local churches to join in Covenant Partnerships with these missionaries.

GBGM provides fund raising, administrative and supervisory staff for outreach programs: The Advance, Disaster Response, Volunteers in Mission, UMCOR, Global Health, Individual Volunteers and others. Through the revamped US-2 and Mission Intern program, Generation Transformation, young adults from the United States can serve in two arenas. Global Mission Fellow US-2—domestic: Young adults (20-30) from the United States can serve in domestic ministries. The Global Mission Fellows –international service is where young adults from all over the world can sign up to do mission outside of their own countries. These are programs that your Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries are available to share with local churches and in Mission Celebration settings.

The major task that we have been engaged in since last annual conference is missionary itineration. Missionaries are provided an opportunity every three years to visit with their supporting churches. Arranging schedules is a task that requires organizational skills and tenacity. Eleven missionaries have itinerated since June 2015:

- Rosagelica Acevado Delgado, a missionary serving in Puerto, visited with churches. Rev. Leo Rodriguez and the Hispanic Caucus assisted in developing her schedule and we thank them for their assistance.
- Dr. Jeffery Hoover and Dr. Ellen Hoover, serving in the Democratic Republic of the Congo visited in October and November. In addition to visiting churches, they attended the UMW Fall Celebration and met with conference/regional staff for lunch at the Mission Center. Thanks to Mittie Quinn and her husband who provided a home base for them when they were not with a church.
- Nan McCurdy and Miguel Mairena, missionaries serving as Mission Advocates in the Western Jurisdiction of the UMC and formerly in Nicaragua were in the conference during November and December.
- Mary Gladstone-Highland a Church and Community Worker serving in the Detroit Conference visited in January. She visited a and participated in ministries of several area churches.
- James Williams, a missionary in the Belize/Honduras UMC visited in February. He had a chance to meet
- with conference staff and the BOOM committee. Rev. Williams is superintendent of the Belize/Honduras UMC.
- Sun Lae Kim, a missionary serving in Mongolia visited supporting churches in March and April.
- Mark and Deidre Zimmerman, missionaries serving in Nepal visited in the BWC during April and May.

Thanks to them for arranging their own schedule of visits with local churches.

Some of these missionaries do not appear on the list of Missionaries Supported by the BWC since they have fewer than four (4) conference churches supporting them. A number of missionaries are supported by local churches in the BWC. Support for all missionaries from the BWC is $186,828.12 for 2015. Local churches who have entered into a Covenant Partnership with a missionary should renew their commitment and submit a new form.

The Mission Personnel Committee, Sharon Leatherman, Jane Grays, Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, Rev. Andrea King, and Rev. Cecil Mudede, interviewed Ms. Jennifer Moore who applied for consideration as a UM missionary. Her application was approved and moved forward to the General Board of Global Ministries for action.

Mission u, a joint venture of the CBGM and BWC UMW, is the major training event for mission education within the BWC. Members of the CBGM serve on the planning team. An Adult and a Youth program are scheduled for July 29-31, 2016 at The Bethesda Marriott in Bethesda, MD. The schedule includes studies on a spiritual growth topic, a geographical area study and a social justice issue. Rev. John Calhoun, Northeastern Jurisdiction Mission Advocate, visited and spoke to attendees at the 2015 event.

A Financial Summary from the GBGM reports that all gifts to missions through the General Board of Global Ministries from BWC churches totals $852,131. This does not include local church and conference financial gifts through VIM trips, support for non-United Methodist missionaries and projects or support to Partnership with whom the BWC is engaged. So, you can imagine that the financial giving to mission ministries is well over one million dollars.

Each year Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries have the opportunity to receive training either within their Jurisdiction or at the GBGM offices in New York. Both of us attended the Mission Leadership Summit for Conference Secretaries and Connectional Ministries leaders during November, 2015. The event provides updates on various GBGM ministries around the world; an update on the move of the GBGM offices to Atlanta, GA, and offers an opportunity to meet with and learn from CSGM from across the U.S.

To close out this report, we share this story from Wesley-Greenburg UMC. In early 2014 we were asked to host Rev. David Pascua, a GBGM missionary, serving at Union Theological Seminary in Cavite, Philippines. We were asked to connect him with seminaries and churches within the BWC. While visiting in the BWC Rev. Pascua was hosted by Rev. Ed Grove and the UMW at Wesley-Greenburg UMC. During their conversations, Rev. Pascua invited Rev. Grove to come to Union Theological Seminary for three months to teach Wesleyan Studies. After much prayer and preparation, in 2015 Rev. Grove joined Rev. Pascua in the Philippines and taught for three months. In addition a VIM Team from Wesley-Greenburg UMC planned and carried out a VIM trip to Manila, Philippines. They have established a relationship with an orphanage there. This is just one example of how joining in a partnership with a GBGM missionary or, hosting a missionary even though you are not financially supporting can result in a response similar to this story.

We invite churches to contact us with any questions they may have related to the mission outreach program of the United Methodist General Board of Global. We are especially interested in talking with young adults about opportunities for them to be engaged in mission.

N. Sharon Leatherman and Jane Grays, Co-Secretaries of Global Ministries

Note: The Baltimore-Washington Conference mourns the loss of Sharon Leatherman, who died July 8, 2016.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY (CC)

The purpose of The Conference Council on Youth Ministry is to empower youth as world-changing disciples of Jesus Christ. This purpose is accomplished through the CCYM Mission Statement:

“To Support, Educate, Advocate, Represent, and Resource, on behalf of the Conference and District Youth Ministries, the local church youth ministries, and the youth - both church and unchurched - of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. All this we do to help make disciples of youth for the transformation of our conference and world.”

The CCYM Mission Statement (S.E.A.R.R.) will be used as a focal point for all CCYM activities with the goal to transform the conference and world. Youth are invited to attend CCYM held monthly on the third Saturday at the Baltimore-Washington Conference Center in Fulton, MD from 10 a.m. to noon. All youth in grades 6 to 12 are welcome. Youth may also join the CCYM leadership team by running for a Youth Officer Position in CCYM.

CCYM leadership consists of two-third youth and one-third adult leaders. CCYM members include youth from each of the eight districts, the District Youth Leaders and/or Youth Leaders and the Conference Youth Ministry Coordinator. For additional information, please contact Pam Bowen, Conference Youth Ministries Coordinator, visit our Facebook page or the website at bwcumc.org/ministries/conference-council-on-youth-ministries-2/

To empower youth as world-changing disciples of Jesus Christ, CCYM youth officers represent the Baltimore-Washington Conference at the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference and are invited to be members of the BWC Discipleship Counsel and Board of Laity.

CCYM Fall Leadership Retreat:

To Support, Educate and Resource youth to be world-changing disciples of Jesus Christ, on September 11, 12 and 13th, The Conference Council on Youth Ministry (CCYM) held their annual fall leadership retreat at West River Retreat and Camping Center. The theme verse of the retreat was:

Romans 12:2 “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is--His good, pleasing and perfect will.” Rev. Bill Jones (Baltimore Metro District Youth Leader) lead a session on “Be Transformed”, Daniel Barnett (Central Maryland District Youth Leader) lead “Be Renewed”, Rev. Dave Showalter (District Youth Leader for Washington East) lead “Tested” and Don Hauprich (Greater Washington District Youth Leader) lead “Approved.”

The youth created position descriptions for all CCYM officers and identifying opportunities within the conference for the youth to provide worship services, discuss CCYM or provide youth ministry resources for District or Conference events.

Stress in the Lives of Young People:

To support youth throughout the conference and to advocate for change, CCYM will be championing the cause of “Stress in the lives of young people.” CCYM youth will focus on gathering resources and material to help identify and help youth throughout the conference manage the multiple priorities of school, extra-curricular activities and family plus how to handle peer pressure, relationships and bullying. Youth work in groups with their adult mentor to gather information and provide warning signs for Pastors and youth leaders to use to identify youth in their church that are over stressed and at risk.

CCYM youth will present their resources for Stress at the 2016 Annual Conference. Churches interested in a CCYM presentation on Stress should contact Pam Bowen.

District Council on Youth Ministries:

Youth in our local churches can provide leadership today and be the leaders of tomorrow. To encourage and resource youth leaders in the local church, each District identifies a District Youth Leader to encourage and support youth ministries in the local church, connect local churches to the conference level and to plan and implement district youth events.

Together with the Conference Youth Ministry Coordinator, the District Youth Leaders provide structure for the Conference Council on Youth Ministry and advocate for resources for the local church youth ministries. The District Youth Leaders come together to exchange ideas, identify and plan training and review youth ministry resources. Below is the list of our current District Youth Leaders: (youth leaders interested in filling a vacant position, please contact Pam Bowen)

- Annapolis District – Kim Walker
- Cumberland-Hagerstown – Marie Ebersole
- Washington East – Rev. David Showalter
- Frederick District – vacant
- Baltimore Suburban – Rev. Bill Jones and Susan Harry
- Baltimore Metropolitan – vacant
- Central Maryland – Daniel Barnett
- Greater Washington – Don Hauprich

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries was re-organized in 2014 and 2015 was our first full year as part of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. There has been tremendous growth in structure and participation. CCYM participated in a small number of service projects in 2015 and will expand service projects in 2016.

All youth in grades 6 through 12 in the Baltimore-Washington Conference interested in The Conference Council on Youth Ministry are welcome to participate in the activities of CCYM.

IN MISSION TOGETHER: EURASIA (FORMERLY RUSSIA INITIATIVE) (CC)

In 2015 and 2016, the IMT Eurasia outreach of the Baltimore-Washington Conference has continued to build on the relationships and work of previous years, and to lay groundwork for new initiatives ahead. As we work, we are in alignment with the priorities of our Eurasian partners in the South Russia Annual Conference. The churches in the South Russia Conference continue to have a vital ministry in making disciples, including through specialized work such as international student ministry, work with ethnic minorities (in particular, the Roma people), creative musical outreach, and prison ministry, to name a few areas of Christian service.

Leadership Development Support. In 2015, we celebrated with Rev. Valentina Stavrova, an elder in the South Russia Conference, as she completed her M.A. at Wesley Theological Seminary. Late in the year, we approved providing assistance to Mrs. Elena Melnikova, who serves in a variety of annual conference and inter-conference leadership positions as well as on the staff of Resurrection UMC in Voronezh. Mrs. Melnikova has begun work on her Doctor of Ministry degree from Wesley Seminary, through a partnership program with Cambridge University in England, where she is focusing on family ministry.

After a year's break in 2015, this year also saw the resumption of our continuing education training for clergy and lay church leaders, in conjunction with the Methodist Theological Seminary in Moscow. Dr. Bruce Birch, a member of our conference, lectured on Hebrew Bible (Old Testament) studies in an extension program at Camp Kristall near Voronezh in June. Both the teaching event itself and Dr. Birch's didactic leadership in it were underwritten by support from the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

Local Church and Program Partnerships. The past year has seen something of a realignment of existing supporting church partnerships within our conference, some of which have moved in the direction of supporting particular projects rather than sister congregations (though the projects themselves may be linked to a congregation). This is in line with a shift in emphasis coming from the Eurasia conferences themselves, as the local churches seek to grow in the direction of financial self-sufficiency and partner support becomes more targeted, and channelled through the district and conference leadership.

Having said this, however, there are still a nearly limitless number of ways that local churches and interested groups (such as UMW chapters or small groups) and individuals can be involved and participate in God's work in Eurasia through our covenant partnership.

Covenant Partnership Expansion. While ministry by individuals and local churches from our conference in the Russian Federation dates back to the early 1990's, it was in 2007 that a formal covenant partnership was ratified between the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the Central Black Soil District, the larger of the two districts in the South Russia Annual Conference. Early on, however, our conference leadership expressed a desire and vision to expand the relationship from being a conference-to-district connection, to becoming a conference-to-conference connection. The other district, then known as the North Caucasus District, much smaller and bordering on the eastern shore of the Black Sea, has since roughly doubled in size and number of congregations with the addition of the churches in the Crimean Peninsula following the de facto annexation of that region by Russia in 2014. Now known as the South District, this area spanning the western Caucasus and Crimea is rich with ministry opportunities and graced with small but very committed congregations and Spirit-filled leaders.

In May (2016), Rob Pierson and Charles Harrell undertook a survey trip to get to know as many of the churches of the South District as possible in a few days, and to reaffirm our commitment to partnership with the congregations of the Central Black Soil District. Under the leadership of the District Superintendent, Rev. Irina Mitina, visits were made to Stavropol, Yuzhny, and Krasnodar in the western Caucasus, and to Kerch, Sevastopol, and Simferopol in the Crimea. Each new place brought the opportunity to meet with congregations and leaders, to visit ministry sites, and to get a sense of the great potential for ministry partnership together. Then it was on to Volgograd and Voronezh in the Central Black Soil District for worship and meetings, including with the Superintendent, Rev. Alexander Pererva, to learn how we might continue to grow our ministry connection with the churches and with the UM Camp “Kristall”.

In the coming months we will be in dialog together and with our Eurasian partners about how we might develop our covenant connection most fruitfully. But already there are a number of exciting project possibilities that present themselves, including: outreach to Roma children (Stavropol), growth of music and recording ministry (Volgograd), establishment of a work team and retreat center, children’s ministry, and evangelistic outreach in a troubled neighborhood (Kerch), assisting in the acquisition of property and a new worship space (Sevastopol), developing camping ministry (Voronezh / Kristall), and support of ministries with troubled children (Erti) and with families (Volgograd). Russia is rich in diversity of ethnicity, religious background, history, and gifts and talents; though the political and economic environment can be challenging, God is at work in wonderful ways!

Teams and Inter-conference Efforts. Other than the 2016 leadership team, there have not been ministry teams to visit Russia from BWC in 2015-2016. We have already received several expressions of interest for 2017, and anticipate sending at least one and perhaps two teams to Russia next year. Persons who are interested can find more information through the IMT Eurasia area of the Conference website, or by contacting one of us directly.

In addition, opportunities to create new relationship connections abound, both through traditional means as well as by way of social media such as Facebook, Skype, etc. There are also ways to support various ministry projects or the work of the church in Eurasia generally, in financial terms. Your IMT Eurasia group, in conjunction with other entities such as GBGM and the Eurasia Area / South Russia Conference itself, will be happy to assist in making those connections.

As we plan forward, we are also in communication with the Virginia Annual Conference, which has a history of work in the region as well, and with the IMT Eurasia ministry leadership for the United States, to maximize the effectiveness of our efforts and to learn from and share with the wider United Methodist connection.

The Eurasian context is a challenging one, to some degree for us, but even more for our brothers and sisters in Christ who live and work there. There are limited resources, great needs, and vast distances to cover. For many, the old communist ideal has been replaced by a quest for affluence that is just as spiritually empty and provides fertile ground for planting Wesleyan seeds of social conscience in the name of Christ. Administrative opposition, often from the Russian Orthodox leadership, creates roadblocks and frustrations. And of course the political tension between the United States and the Russian Federation adds a small but discernible layer of challenge. But God is moving through the people called United Methodists, and continues to offer to us a powerful opportunity for shared ministry and fruitfulness, in the name of Jesus Christ.

JUSTICE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS (CC)

2015 was a year of transition for DC-MD Justice for Our Neighbors (DC-MD JFON). The previous attorney, Mayuris Pimentel, resigned in May 2015. She had been with DC-MD JFON for five years, and served over a thousand clients during her employment, in matters ranging from basic green card applications and petitions to bring family members to unite with their loved ones in the U.S., to more complex cases involving human trafficking, clients who have been involved with the criminal justice system, complex visa and removal issues, lengthy humanitarian cases, and more. Mayuris spent the last few months of her time at DC-MD JFON wrapping up her existing cases, instructing clients how to proceed with their cases, and preparing files for the next attorney. The clinics paused during the time period in which there was no attorney, and clinic coordinators either referred clients to other organizations or put them on the list for the initial clinics that would resume in the fall.

The Board of Directors spent the spring and summer months interviewing for the position, and hiring Angela Edman as the new attorney. Angela has over seven years of experience practicing immigration and human rights law, and more years serving vulnerable populations in various capacities. She has provided legal services to underserved populations in the U.S. and overseas, and holds expertise in asylum and refugee law, cases involving sexual and gender-based violence and other forms of torture, other humanitarian-based forms of relief for people fleeing violence, and removal defense. She has also worked successfully on family-based cases, green card applications, and naturalization. She is particularly passionate about working with other service providers and spiritual leaders to provide not just legal, but holistic services to immigrants. Prior to joining DC-MD JFON, Angela ran a legal services program that served torture survivors in immigration detention in five locations in the U.S. at the Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service (LIRS); and prior to that, Angela provided legal representation to asylum seekers and torture survivors in Hong Kong who had fled violence from all over Africa, the Middle East, and South Asia. She has extensive experience leading trainings, mentoring law students and volunteers, and conducting advocacy and outreach. Angela is also the author of "First Steps: An LIRS Guide for Refugees, Asylum Seekers, and Migrants Released from Detention," an LIRS publication which provides information to empower lawyers, social services providers, and churches to help their clients and church members understand their legal rights and responsibilities, as well as how to access benefits such as healthcare and means-tested benefits. She also wrote two shorter, immigration status-specific guides: one for asylum seekers and one for lawful permanent residents. It may be a useful resource to the Conference and other ministries with which the Conference may be involved. All three versions are available for free download, in English and Spanish (Chinese and Korean will be posted shortly) at www.lirs.org/firststeps.

The Board spent the latter part of the summer preparing for Angela's start date in September 2015. National JFON held its annual convening in Grapevine, TX at the beginning of September, and Angela was able to start by attending this conference and learning JFON policies, procedures, and practices; as well as participating in substantive legal sessions. It was useful to prepare her for common issues that arise in the JFON context, and help her prepare for solutions. Angela spent the remainder of September preparing for the first clinic in October by meeting with the clinic coordinators and volunteers, reviewing policies and procedures, reviewing files of continuing cases, conducting outreach to other service providers in the community to learn what services exist and assess opportunities for collaboration, and taking trainings on types of cases she had less experience with. She also assessed some current needs within the office, and, together with Board volunteers, worked to get a new website and facebook page running for DD-MD JFON, as well as worked toward the creation of an Interpretation and Translation Committee on the Board.

Clinics resumed in October. As there are no clinics across JFON sites in December, DC-MD JFON can only report on the clinics that were held in October and November for this report, and casework continued in December, but will of course have more clients and clinics to report on for the 2016 report. As the Conference knows, DC-MD runs four legal clinics in churches through the DC-MD region: one in Hyattsville, MD; one in Gaithersburg, MD; one in Northwest Washington, DC; and one in Baltimore, MD. Each clinic rotates to take one month off, so three clinics are held per month. In October, Hyattsville, DC, and Gaithersburg held clinics; and in November, Hyattsville, DC, and Baltimore held clinics. At the end of 2015, Angela had opened 51 new cases through these clinics, serving women, men, and children from Benin, Canada, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Eritrea, Ghana, Grenada, Guatemala, Honduras, Hong Kong, Iran, Jamaica, Mexico, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Peru, and Trinidad and Tobago. The types of cases included advice and counsel, asylum and protection under the Convention Against Torture, brief services such as specific research or attending a USCIS (U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services) appointment, removal defense, family petitions, naturalization, and adjustment of status (green card applications).

Angela also came to DC-MD JFON being heavily involved in the advocacy community in Washington, DC, and has maintained her involvement in various coalitions, now representing DC-MD JFON. Angela now represents DC-MD JFON as part of the Asylum Working Group of the Refugee Council USA, a strong group of advocates and lawyers holding expertise in asylum law that advocates at the Congressional and Administrative level for the rights of asylum seekers, which make up an increasingly large component of DC-MD JFON's client base. In fact, the Baltimore and suburban MD area, which DC-MD JFON serves, is among the top five places in the U.S. that mothers with children who have fled violence in Central America relocate to after being released from immigration detention in Texas to pursue their immigration cases! As Angela previously ran a program for detained torture survivors that ran out of several detention facilities in Texas, immigration attorneys who help get the women and children released from these facilities now give them DC-MD JFON's contact information if they are coming to Maryland, which is a wonderful connection and opportunity for service in our area. We hope the Conference finds this information regarding the high number of mothers with children who are in need of services in the Baltimore region helpful in assessing the needs of its various ministries. Angela has worked with the Asylum Working Group on issues that are very important to DC-MD JFON clients, such as lengthy wait times for employment authorization, problems caused by heavy ankle bracelets many women released from detention must wear, and other basic human rights issues affecting our clients. Angela also remained part of the USCIS Asylum Stakeholders' Group, and now represents DC-MD JFON there. The Stakeholders' group is a group of experienced attorneys recognized by USCIS as providing quality services to asylum seekers, by invitation, which meets quarterly at USCIS headquarters in DC with officials to discuss common issues across the country and ways advocates can work with USCIS to improve the situation for our clients. Angela has worked with local and state groups as well to address issues specific to Maryland, such as opposition to refugee resettlement expressed by the Maryland state administration.

DC-MD JFON went through an incredible period of transition in 2015, and the Board and staff member pulled together to ensure continued services for low-income immigrants in need of our services. The 2016 report will demonstrate even more growth and robust services delivered to immigrants seeking refuge in the U.S.

PARISH NURSE MINISTRIES (CC)

A committee of parish nurses, also known as faith community nurses, works with Reverend Dr. Andrea King, Associate Director of Ministry with the Poor. We support and encourage current and new parish nurse programs in the conference and are available to consult with clergy, registered nurses, and others who are interested in development of a parish nursing or health ministry program for their congregation. We provide information about the practice of parish nursing, initial steps for developing a program for the church, and helpful denominational, regional, and national resources that are supportive of this specialty.

Parish nurses have the ability to increase connections within the congregation and focus on the promotion of health within the context of the values, beliefs, practices, mission and ministry of a faith community. They recognize that health is more than the absence of disease. Parish nurses provide a wholistic approach to empower individuals, families and the congregation to achieve a fullness of life.

In 2015-2016 members of the Parish Nurse Ministries were active in the following ways:

- Staffed displays, presented UMC Health Ministry Network literature and provided discussion opportunities featuring information about parish nursing and developing a health ministry. This took place in a variety of settings including the 2015 BWC Annual Conference, a Heal the Sick network meeting, and the Washington Region Leadership Day.
- Attended the U.S. Health Forum in Houston, Texas in September 2015. The key theme of the forum was “a UMC health ministry partnership for healthy congregations and healthy communities.” Sponsors included Global Ministries and Global Health; Wesley Seminary; General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Center for Health; Houston Methodist Hospital, and St. Paul’s UMC in Houston.
- At the Washington Region Leadership Day on March 5, 2016, presented an overview of parish nursing in a segment of Dr. Janet Fujiyama’s presentation, “Creating Wellness for Your Congregation.” A display featuring information about parish nursing was in the exhibition area during the day.
- Our committee offers scholarships to complete a basic parish nurse preparation course for United Methodist registered nurses in the BWC jurisdiction who want to pursue parish nursing. The money for the scholarships is a grant from GBGM for parish nursing. This spring we granted a scholarship to an applicant who is a registered nurse attending a United Methodist church in the Baltimore Washington Conference and who is completing a basic preparation course for parish nursing. For more information, contact Carol Whitney at carolawhitney@gmail.com
- Connected with parish nurses comprising the Health and Healing Council Steering Team of the Eastern PA Conference to share practice information and ways we are tied to our specific conferences.

QUALITY OF LIFE RETREATS (CC)

Some trends are changing about the people who struggle to live with HIV and AIDS in this region, as many become older and more are diagnosed with new, additional diseases. Quality of Life Retreats (QLR), an HIV/AIDS ministry of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, is making adjustments to address these and other changes. But our commitment to provide crucial respite, renewal and relational support to people who wage that struggle daily has not wavered and is as strong as ever.

More than a hundred participants gathered for our four quarterly retreats at two distinct sites in 2015 to receive inspiration and education for managing their disease, while also forming close, supportive bonds with one another. The conference’s Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center hosted our spring and summer retreats in June and August, providing a comfortable, affordable, natural setting apart from the stress of city life. In February and December we met, as usual, at the Washington Retreat House, an ideal, Catholic-owned venue near Catholic University in the District of Columbia.

Our retreats provide life-enhancing encounters and learning experiences to inform participants about their conditions and help them to deal with the multiple challenges — both physical and psychological, social and spiritual — of living with HIV and AIDS. In the process they develop and renew healthy relationships with others, with themselves and with God or the source of their spiritual strength.

Quality of Life Retreats began in 1988, thanks to longtime supporter and our current board treasurer-er, the Rev. Terri Rae Chattin, and others wanting to respond to the alienation, rejection, suffering and loss of life experienced many people who were contracting HIV and AIDS. We have hosted over a hundred retreats since then, serving more than 3,500 people living with HIV and AIDS.

Our three-and-a-half-day retreats offer a unique, holistic, participant-focused approach to educating and supporting people living with HIV and AIDS (PLWHA). They receive necessary wisdom to face truths and challenges and to overcome adversity, while connecting socially, spiritually and emotionally with others in a safe space away from the stresses of their daily lives and environments. Here they find rest and renewal, while learning effective strategies for long-term survival.

Our retreats educate participants about managing their health, disease symptoms and medications, and about alternative therapies and emerging discoveries and changes in the treatment of HIV/AIDS. Small-group dialogues and exercises provide important insights, community-building, networking and morale-lifting activities. Participants also can benefit from optional worship and spiritual nurture activities, as well as opportunities to meet and mentor one another while sharing experiences and encouragement.

In plenary and small-group settings QLR participants choose to talk about living with HIV while caring for friends and families and struggling with finances, relationships, aging minds and bodies, sexuality, self-exposure and other conflicts and crises. In response they receive fresh ideas, information about resources, useful insights from others' experiences, supportive critiques and most importantly, non-judgmental acceptance. Many later report returning home feeling refreshed and empowered, with new mental clarity and new coping skills. They also return home with a network of people and agencies they can contact to develop support systems and thus enhance the quality and longevity of their lives.

Arts and crafts, self-care therapies, music, games, recreation, thematic dinners, talent shows, prayer buddies and secret gift exchanges — the many activities, like the many discussions, are meaningful and memorable for each retreat participant. In the process, they learn to challenge habits and addictions and wrestle with difficult emotions like guilt, anger, grief, shame, fear, isolation and loss of self-esteem. As a result many gain a sense of fellowship and camaraderie, safety, confidence, hope and joy for living.

We celebrate that a third of our retreaters in 2015 were first-timers. Most came from Baltimore and Washington D.C., largely representing underserved, under-resourced urban populations, which is consistent with the HIV/AIDS trends in our region. But always some come from other parts of the conference region and from other states. We are diverse in race and ethnicity, gender, age group, faith group and sexual orientation. However, two-thirds in 2015 were over age 50, most were African American, and participation was evenly divided between men and women.

More of our retreaters are arriving with additional disease diagnoses, especially the growing incidence of Hepatitis C. While fear of social stigma is still a problem for some, it is less so for many younger participants who find more acceptance of their managed HIV status. We address these and other trends in our retreat discussions.

Our diverse, volunteer board of directors, retreat staff and resource experts collaborate to offer a broad range of knowledge, experience and ideas to the total retreat experience. The all-volunteer staff of each retreat includes guest presenters, small-group leaders, activity directors, a registered nurse who specializes in HIV and a spiritual director.

QLR offers a viable model for compassionate involvement by the religious community in the lives of PLWHA. Our program is open to individuals of all faiths. Churches and individuals — lay and clergy — who participate and support our efforts become vital partners along with community volunteers and service agencies. Baltimore-Washington Conference clergy typically lead, preach and serve Holy Communion at our retreat worship services. And we joined the conference in celebrating and expressing thanks for the faithful, compassionate, resourceful leadership provided by Sandy Ferguson, an active, supportive QLR board liaison who retired in 2015 after serving many years on the conference staff.

We remain grateful for the financial support from the BWC through its Connectional Ministries budget, Peace with Justice Sunday offering, Advance Special giving and Global AIDS Fund connection with the United Methodist Committee on Relief. Unfortunately, our annual UMCOR funding ended in 2015, as the agency decided to shift its future funding priorities for supporting HIV/AIDS work. This loss forced us to reduce to three our number of retreats planned for 2016 and thus, cancel the February winter retreat.

However, we are seeking new funding from other sources so that retreaters — most of whom live on public assistance — will not have to bear more of the cost burden for their participation. Currently, most pay only about $20 for an invaluable experience that actually costs us 10 times as much.

On September 26, 2015, we sponsored our first official fundraising event, a benefit concert featuring incredible music by celebrated Washington DC vocalist and choir director Shirli Hughes, graciously supported by members of her talented group Ovation. Silver Spring United Methodist Church kindly allowed us to use their beautiful sanctuary at no cost. We are planning more such events that celebrate life and art and generosity in 2016.

Once again, we partnered with Glen Burnie United Methodist Church, which used its church bus to transport retreaters from Baltimore to Manidokan. We also receive annually special funding from Linden-Linthicum United Methodist Church in Clarksville and Grace United Methodist Church in Baltimore, among other church and non-church donors. The DC Aquatics Club has been a significant donor through its annual Swim for Life benefit.

We maintain contact with churches, service agencies and individuals throughout the year; and we communicate through use of social media (including our Facebook page), our section of the Baltimore-Washington Conference's Web site, and our display table and advertising at the conference's annual session. We also participate in community outreach events and provide information for mission events at various churches.

We have — and indeed, we are — a powerful, ongoing story worth sharing, a story of grace, generosity and gratitude. We celebrate each life changed through the experience of Quality of Life Retreats, thanks to the generosity and concern of our supporters in the church and beyond the church. In fact, that is our uplifting theme: "Celebrate Life!" We invite the entire Baltimore-Washington Conference to join us in that imperative clarion call, as we rejoice in God's gracious gift of life now and life everlasting. Thank you!

RETREAT AND CAMPING MINISTRIES (CC)

At the end of a week of camp last summer, a mom picks up her son and asks him "What was the best part of camp?" Excitedly and without hesitation he replies "Worship." It wasn't what she was expecting to hear and probably not what he thought he would say at the end of the week. During that brief conversation there was a glow and an indication that a change had occurred. Each evening, worship was so filled with the Holy Spirit that it had a profound effect on his week of camp.

Several years ago, campers participated in the camp mission project Stop Hunger Now. Campers donated funds from their camp store account to purchase meals for the hungry. In the fall, many of them came back to help pack those meals for shipment. One camper was so moved by this experience that when she entered high school the following year she formed a club Together to End Hunger. For three years now they have raised funds and packed meals over 30,000 meals to feed to feed hungry people around the world.

Changing the world is hard. Each day, whether it be during a week of summer camp, a youth retreat, an Emmaus Walk, or two folks walking along the shoreline or on a mountain trail discussing the hard issues in their lives, disciples are being made to transform the world. Camp Harmison, Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center and West River Center are places the Baltimore-Washington Conference has set aside for children, youth and adults to experience the Holy Spirit, emerge as leaders and go forth to transform the world. The presence of a Christian community in the midst of God's natural settings provides the catalyst for that to happen.

In 2015 12,931 persons came to one of the sites for retreats, summer camp, picnics, meetings or other day trips. This represents an increase of 4% over 2014. There were 1,069 residential summer campers, a 4% increase over 2014 and a 13% increase over 2013. The Day Camp program at West River saw even larger growth with 219 campers, a 13% growth over 2014 and a whopping 81% growth over 2013. In 2015, $80,948.75 was awarded in camperships to 296 campers. This figure does not include the thousands of dollars raised and donated by local churches to send children and youth to camp.

Camp Life, a program funded by the Board of Child Care for children and youth who have been impacted by violence in Baltimore City, had 70 campers attend a week of residential camp at West River. In a new venture also supported by the Board of Child Care, the Manidokan staff worked in coordination with John Wesley UMC in Baltimore City to run one week of day camp. Thirty-five campers attended and experienced a week with worship and bible study, team building, great games, a trip to the Carrie Murray Nature Center and a visit to the Board of Child Care campus to swim and experience the high ropes activities.

Camp Harmison hosted Camp JOY for the 26th year. This program continues to provide a valuable ministry not only repairing homes in the Berkeley Springs and Hancock areas but building relationships and sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This past summer 250 youth and adults participated.

This ministry could not be effective without the tens of thousands of volunteer hours that folks put in each year. More than 250 folks volunteered a week this past summer to serve as Counselors and Directors at summer camp. Other volunteers provided resources, skills and critical help with work projects to improve the sites. Our staff is deeply indebted to these individuals. We are also blessed to work with church leaders throughout the conference who organize retreats and events at our sites. We recognize their hard work and dedication and count it a privilege to partner with them.

At present, there are two former summer camp staff in seminary. In the recent past, nine former summer staff have gone on to be ordained and serve in local churches and another dozen are serving full time as lay persons in camps and Christian ministries here in our own Conference as well as across the country.

I would like to express my continued appreciation for the support from the churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference for their partnership in ministry. The annual apportionment allotment from the Board of Trustees for capital improvements enables the site staff to keep the infrastructure of the camps in good shape. Retreat and Camping Ministries is on track once again to finish the fiscal year in the black. This will be the third year in a row. In consultation with CFA, 50% of the excess revenue has been put back in to camperships thus increasing the opportunities for children and youth to experience the Fun, Friends and Faith building experiences of a week of summer camp.

There were a number of capital improvements made at the camps throughout the year. At Manidokan these include new carpeting and beds in the cabins, a new roof on the Dining Hall, a new sound system in the Dining Hall and the installation of a security system. At West River the major project was the renovation of the two-story, Cabin #16 or Directors Cabin (depending on your era) into a year round accommodation to be used by summer staff, families, small groups and clergy Sabbath retreats. It accommodates seven people in three bedrooms. It was renamed Kahlert House in honor of Anna Kahlert, who first gave the funds for the purchase of the property for a camp for youth by the YWCA in 1923. At Camp Harmison, nine additional acres of property were purchased from Trinity Asbury UMC in Berkeley Springs. This tract abutted the Family Pavilion and included a portion of the access road from the Family Pavilion to the Meadow Pavilion.

I have the wonderful privilege to be honored with the leadership responsibilities of a ministry that is supported by the prayers, presence and gifts of the people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. There is a dedicated ministry team that serves this ministry faithfully. I am grateful for their dedication and service.

Camp Harmison: Keith Puffenberger, Caretaker Cathy Marsh, Housekeeping
 Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center: Chris Schlieckert, Director; Steve Lane, Assistant Director; Scott Norris, Maintenance Director
 West River Center: David Coomes, Maintenance Director; Tammy Gauley, Food Service Director; Diane Gunde and Ben Youngkin, Maintenance; Matthew Surber, Program Director
 Retreat and Camping Ministries Office: Amy Marshall, Camping Administrator

We look forward with hope to expanding our reach to more people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the greater communities that we serve.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women (UMW) is a faith based membership organization of laywomen with the United Methodist Church. The 2012 General Conference of The Methodist Church approved actions from Women's Division and the General Board of Global Ministries to make United Methodist Women an autonomous organization within the church, separating the national policymaking body of women from Global Ministries for the first time in more than 70 years. Since 1869, the organization has expanded from two missionaries in India to work in more than 100 countries, $300 to 20 Million dollars for the program of UMW each year and from eight women to approximately 800,000 in membership. In 2016 this organization will celebrate its 150th anniversary in mission.

What we do

United Methodist members are committed to serving and growing as disciples of Jesus Christ in community with women and advocating social justice issues and mission on behalf of women, children and youth around the world. Because the UMC is a connectional church, each local church and district units of UMW relates directly to the conference organization of United Methodist Women. The National Office for UMW is the governing body.

Membership is open to any woman who commits to the purpose of United Methodist Women and makes a financial pledge to mission becomes a member.

VIBRANT COMMUNITIES (CC)

The Office of Vibrant Communities role in the Baltimore-Washington Conference is to initiate and support the development of new faith communities as well as to assist existing congregations to be revitalized for growth. The Vibrant Communities Office's goal is to help all congregations, new faith communities and new faith experiences offer opportunities for and bring more persons into a relationship with Jesus Christ that is life-transforming.

This past year has been busy, productive and fruitful:

- In partnership with Glen Mar United Methodist Church, the office hosted Rev. Bob Farr, the Director of Congregational Excellence in the Missouri Conference, for his workshop on "10 Prescriptions for a Healthy Church." More than 200 people attended representing more than 60 churches;
- Sent 18 people to the 2015 School of Congregational Development in Indianapolis, Indiana with an additional 31 people participating via satellite at two local church sites within our conference;
- Assisted 12 people to attend Exponential in Florida where they explored "Multiplication" as the next strategy in the Discipleship conversation;
- Conducted DISCernment Retreats where nearly 40 individuals have more fully discovered their leadership style and discerned if they are being called to start or lead a new ministry expression or experience.
- Provided classes at Regional Leadership Days on MissionInsite and Readiness 360, tools that help congregations to understand and prepare for their fields of ministry opportunity, as well as offered workshops to motivate local churches to move from "Maintenance to Mission, from Membership to Discipleship." Also facilitated at church leadership retreats on creating and becoming a vibrant community.
- Completed the two-year cluster coaching process for existing congregations who engaged in the "How to Reach New People" workshops to further develop their effectiveness in reaching new people in their communities.

The Baltimore-Washington Conference has witnessed many exciting developments - such as the new faith community, InspireDC, being birthed in a building formerly occupied by a congregation that closed; a missional faith partnership as Eastern and Faith Community United Methodist churches have come together to share building space, ministry and mission at the Faith Community property in Baltimore; and Community With a Cause, a new church start for disabled persons, families and friends who gather to support of one another while worshipping and studying the Bible in community on Saturday evenings.

These "God moments" are important and encouraging as this office and our conference continues to reach new persons for Christ by starting new faith communities and creating new worship experiences. The Office of Vibrant Communities will continue to resource congregations and communities to help them make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Rev. Antoine C. Love, Director for Vibrant Communities

YOUNG ADULT COUNCIL (CC)

The Young Adult Council's vision is to be a movement of young adults growing in Christ and community. Over the past year, they focused on training, resourcing and providing opportunities to build or enhance young adult ministries throughout the conference.

Members of the Young Adult Council led training and workshops at the Regional Leadership Days events. These trainings helped to connect local church members to the council for additional coaching as well as to other churches in their district to help strengthen ministries at local levels.

As a way to resource churches who are struggling with young adults, the council has started writing a monthly column in the conference newspaper, the UMConnection. The column addresses topics such as the reason why young adults are leaving churches to the top three mistakes that churches make when trying to engage young adults.

The Young Adult Council hosts open meetings where young adults or individuals who work with young adults can gather to share ideas and spend time visioning how young adult ministry can grow at the local, district, regional and conference levels. They also discuss the needs they have as young adults in our conference and how the council and the conference as a whole can address and meet their needs.

One issue that arose during an open meeting was the need to have a discussion/event following the death of Freddie Gray and the riots in Baltimore. Young adults were searching for a way to have open and honest discussion about racial issues within our geographic footprint. In response to that desire, the Young Adult Council hosted an event called #OurLivesMatterSymposium in DC in November. The event included poets, visual artists, musicians, a panel discussion as well as small group discussions.

Another issue that was identified was the need for young adults across the conference, both laity and clergy, to become better connected. At the 2015 Annual Conference, the Young Adult Council hosted a young adult social at a local restaurant and heavily promoted it prior to the start of Annual Conference. More than 50 young adults attended, and there was representation from all four regions present. It was so well received that they plan to make this an annual event.

The Young Adult Council has a funding application to award grants to ministry groups who are seeking assistance in building an existing ministry or developing a brand new young adult ministry. Multiple churches applied and received funding as well as two of our campus ministry programs.

In an effort to continue to grow both the council and young adult ministry as a whole, the council would love to connect with all existing young adult ministry programs as well as churches that are looking to develop one. There are representatives on the council from each district in addition to a conference staff member who can assist. But, this can only be done if churches/individuals seeking to connect or looking for help contact the council. Please email them at yac@bwcumc.org so that we can remain committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ, especially among the young adult population.

ZIMBABWE PARTNERSHIP (CC)

The year 2015 was an extremely powerful and productive year for the Zimbabwe Partnership. The collective work of the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the Zimbabwe Episcopal Area continues to bear much fruit as we globally seek to advance the Kingdom of God together.

Specifically, the three annual conferences (the Zimbabwe Episcopal Area is split into two annual conferences) participated in our 10th Pastor's School in July. Twenty-four clergy and laity from the Baltimore-Washington Conference traveled to Mutare, Zimbabwe, and Africa University to help facilitate this grand occasion. Close to 500 pastors from across Zimbabwe were in attendance; the largest attendance since the school started in 1997. The week-long school continues to provide Zimbabwean pastors theological training, development and skills to lead their congregations in effective, fruit-bearing ways.

Most of the pastors attending were local pastors. Because the church in Zimbabwe is growing so quickly, there often aren't enough pastors to equip the growing churches fast enough. And, because Zimbabwe now finds itself 80 percent unemployed, many pastors cannot afford to pay for basic, let alone advanced theological education. So, our time with the pastors and other leaders was very powerful and ended with certificates presented to each pastor who came to the school — a real high moment in our gathering.

This year, we took the most diverse group we've ever taken to Zimbabwe from the standpoint of age. Zimbabwe, because of terminal disease and poverty, has become a much younger nation. This time, several young adults and children from the BWC were a part of the group of 24 traveling to Zimbabwe, and in addition to participating in mission activities at churches, schools and orphanages during our stay in Mutare, the young adults and children also taught at the pastor's school, offering those in attendance skills and advice from a U.S. perspective on developing and growing young adult and children's ministries. It was a powerful moment to see our young people engage with Zimbabwean leadership in what truly was a Spirit-filled, collaborative learning experience.

A highlight of the trip was the distribution of clothing to churches and missions by several people in the traveling party, and the presentation of a $5,000 gift by Rev. Tim Warner on behalf of the Emory Grove United Methodist Church in Gaithersburg to the Gwese United Methodist Church in Gwese, Zimbabwe, to construct a bore hole in the center of the community. The gift from Emory Grove was a follow-up from work that had been started in this rural community by the mission team that went for the Pastor's school in 2013. On that trip, the team helped construct a new sanctuary for Gwese Church which was completed in 2014. Now with the bore hole dug and installed while we were present, the entire Gwese community has access to fresh well water! The blessings of this gift are immeasurable.

All of this great energy with the Pastor's School continues to be found in the ongoing ministry of the conference's Volunteers in Mission work spearheaded by churches such as Community UMC in Crofton, Bel Air UMC in Bel Air and others, and the great work of Charlie Moore, Jim Gourley, Sue McCann, Dave Talbot and countless others within our conference.

We really have a powerful partnership with Zimbabwe established that since 1997, continues to grow and flourish in great ways. With the establishment of a new covenant, Pastor's Schools will continue and the Volunteers in Mission work will expand through churches, schools, clinics and other projects that the Holy Spirit orchestrates. The Zimbabwe Partnership is without question a great source of celebration and testimony to the collaborative, global work of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. Praise God!

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRIES

BOARD OF TRUSTEES' (CC)

Once again it has been a busy and productive year for the Annual Conference Board of Trustees. Our primary role is to safeguard and protect the interests and rights of the Annual Conference.

While it would be difficult to summarize all of the Trustee Board's work, I would like to note some of the Board's accomplishments:

We have continued working with Greater Washington District and their effort to reach young adults in D.C. By using proceeds from the sale of properties in the District, we have supported their young adult planting zone. Calvary-Casa del Pueblo UMC in Washington, DC, has undergone minimal renovation and is serving as a base of operations. It now serves as a worship and ministry outpost for young adults and the community.

As as Board we have also worked with a number of local churches in need of emergency loans for repairs. We provided a matching grant to Marsden UMC in Bermuda following damage they received from Hurricane Joaquin. We also provided a grant to Hughes Memorial UMC to establish a fulltime pastor for Hispanic ministries. Both of these efforts were funded through sales of property in the Greater Washington District. We have also provided support to a variety of churches in the Baltimore Metropolitan District with emergency loans and grants to repair infrastructure.

We are pleased, once again, to support the Africa University Development office by providing office space in the Mission Center, as well as providing the necessary repairs and upkeep to the center so that our staff, boards and agencies have a functional place to work and meet.

After much prayer, negotiation and mediation, we were able to come to an agreeable settlement with the former members of White Rock UMC, following their decision to leave the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church. We are also dealing with legal challenges from two other former United Methodist congregations.

This will be a year of transition with the upcoming retirement of our bishop. We are working with our conference Committee on Episcopacy and the Episcopal Transition Team in the process of discerning how we will provide housing for our new Episcopal Leader. Much of this will be dependent on several pieces of legislation which may be addressed at General Conference.

The Board of Trustees continued this year to provide training at the Regional Leadership Days on the role and responsibilities of local church trustees, and to support local churches by being available to answer questions and provide guidance on local church trustee matters.

Our greatest challenge has been the discovery of several former United Methodist Church properties that had either been closed or abandoned decades ago. The Trustees are now responsible for their upkeep and disposition.

I am grateful to all of the Trustees who faithfully serve, and to the conference office on Finance and Administration. Their cooperation and assistance has been invaluable.

Rev. Dr. Bill Brown, Chair

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS

The Board of Pensions and Health Benefits continues to pursue its goal of enabling clergy and lay staff to accomplish their ministries without concern for their long-term financial protection. We continue to position ourselves to face the challenges that lie ahead and to assist clergy and staff in their mission.

Pensions:

- Pre-82 Service Funding: The 2016 Past Service Rate (PSR) is confirmed at $640. We recommend that the PSR for 2017 be set at $665. ¶1506.7 (2012 Discipline) grants authority to the annual conference to review the annuity rate for Pre-82 service and to adjust the PSR rate as appropriate taking into consideration the changes in the economy. Such annuity rate may remain the same or be increased without restriction. The General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits actuarial valuation for Pre-82 Annuities as of January 1, 2015, showed a fully funded plan, no monies to be paid by BWC. Pre-82 is the pension plan in place prior to 1982.

- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) Funding: The General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits actuarial valuation for MPP Annuities as of January 1, 2015, showed that it is also a fully funded plan, no monies to be paid by BWC. Monies previously contributed to MPP will continue to be held in individual participant accounts. MPP is the pension plan in place from 1982 through 2006.
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Funding: The Baltimore Washington Conference funds the program as follows:
- CRSP Defined Contribution (DC) — BWC continues to collect 3% of participant's plan compensation (Salary plus housing) to fund the Defined Contribution (DC). 2% goes directly to the participant's DC account. Participant is now required to enroll in the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) with a contribution of at least 1% of plan compensation in order to receive a match of up to 1%.
- CRSP Defined Benefit (DB) — BWC continues to collect 12% of participant's plan compensation limited by the DAC.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP):

- BWC continues to collect 3% of a participant's plan compensation (salary plus housing) for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The CPP provides death and disability benefits for all eligible participants.

Health:

- HealthFlex: Your Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has spent years evaluating health reform and the rising costs of health care. Employers of all sizes and types are striving to provide health care while trying to keep cost under control. Your board has approved BWC moving to the HealthFlex Exchange in 2017. The HealthFlex Exchange is an expansion of the HealthFlex program that we currently have. It brings more plan options; more flexibility to select the HealthFlex plan that best fits each individual needs. HealthFlex Exchange is not a public exchange and is not associated with government agencies. It is a group health plan designed for United Methodist Church clergy, lay employees and their families.
- Retirees: Retirees who are over age 65 will work with OneExchange (formerly Extend Health) to choose policies better suited to their individual needs and will be offered a stipend based on years of service. Retirees who are under age 65 or any future participants who retire before age 65 will remain on the active HealthFlex plan until the month they turn 65.

Social Security: Your board strongly recommends that all clergy of the Conference participate in Social Security, and not exercise any conscience clauses to opt out of Social Security. Eligibility for medical benefits through OneExchange in retirement and disability benefits through the CPP program are both dependent on participation in Social Security and Medicare. Thus, one's irrevocable decision to opt out of Social Security is a decision to be excluded from these Conference programs as well.

Arrearage: Local Church arrearages in payment for pastor's health care premiums and pension obligations have grown each year. Since the Conference first pays for Pension and Health benefits and then bills local churches, nonpayment of these bills imposes a burden on the other churches of the conference. As reported last year, Bishop Matthews appointed a Task Force with representatives from the Cabinet and the Board of Pensions. During 2014 the procedures developed by the Task Force were implemented. With the help of the District Superintendent, members of the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and Church Committee chairs, Congregations develop action plans to document their path forward as they agree to stay current in their payments. The objective is to make every effort to help churches return to health both in their ministry and their finances. 13 churches had signed documents to participate in the forbearance and revitalization program and we have collected past obligations totaling $170,855 from these churches. As a result, the total arrearage at the end of 2014 was $366,550.

Final Comments: The CBOPHB thanks Francess Tagoe, Director, Human Resources and Benefits for her enthusiastic and professional work on behalf of participants and the board. She effectively communicates and administers the benefits based on Plan rules and regulations, the Book of Discipline, the Conference's policies and procedures, and all applicable state and federal laws so that there is an understanding of the benefits for our clergy and lay employees. It is her goal and the board's goal to continue to provide the best possible benefits package for plan participants, while maintaining the utmost care for and fiduciary responsibility to you, the plan participants, and those in the Baltimore-Washington Conference for whom we owe the same. We wish to also give thanks to Christol Medley, Human Resources and Benefits Associates, Pier McPayten, Controller, and the District Superintendents who all support the work we do.

Jackson H. Day, Chair

Paul J. Eichelberger, Treasurer

COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS (CC)

The Commission on Communications works closely with the BWC award-winning Communications Staff. It is a privilege and delight to work with the dedicated staff. These professionals work tirelessly to bring the Good News to us and from us. Their efforts brought them to national attention as they covered the ongoing ministries in Sandtown following the Baltimore unrest in May 2015. Their coverage of ministries in the far and near corners of our Annual Conference allows us to learn and understand the diversity of the churches in our Episcopal Area. Their on-site work at Annual Conference is a critical part of making the work flow smoothly, and months of work after Annual Conference brings news of those proceedings to our doorsteps.

Given the capabilities of our staff, the role of the Commission is one of support, reflection, resourcing and advocacy. Members of the Commission are chosen for their representation of the different geographical, spiritual, and political demographics of our Conference, as well as gender, racial and ethnic diversity that defines us. Members have been asked to provide feedback about plans and policy, budget, web and print media design, as well as to act as liaisons to the various areas they represent. Meeting both face to face and using the marvels of modern technology, this group attempts to provide the support needed by our dynamic staff.

This year has been busy for our staff as they continue to cover the "Good News" of God at work for the transformation of lives in the BWC. Confronted with some staff changes, illnesses, as well as joys and opportunities that have impacted daily work, the staff has mustered on. At the helm, we are blessed by the balance and focus of Melissa Lauber, Director of Communications. Her commitment to communicating the Good News guides every step taken. Her love of God, her deep respect for all people, and her unfailing commitment to The United Methodist Church is reflected in all of the work completed by the Communications Staff of Melissa Lauber (Director), Erik Alsgaard (Managing Editor), Alison Burdett (Multimedia Producer), Kayla Spears (Communication Strategist), Kat Care (Web Content Manager), and Linda Worthington (Writer/Volunteer).

Erik Alsgaard (Managing Editor) is the energy behind much of our presence in modern media: Facebook, Twitter, and the Connection. User "hits" continue to rise at statistically significant rates. The current goal is to have 2,500 followers by Annual Conference.

Shifting staff members meant saying goodbye to Harrison Zepp, web designer, and hello to Kat Care who is the new Web Content Manager. After months of attempts to develop a website that was less costly and more accessible, we have contracted with a professional web platform and shifted the staff position to one of gathering and developing content. Kat Care comes to BWC with a wealth of experience and a yearning to work with a nonprofit organization.

Alison Burdett, Multimedia Producer, has been on maternity leave for a portion of this year. Her creativity, her understanding of the impact of visual images and design on the viewer, have been missed, but by AC she will be back on board. The Staff has made efforts to make Alison's skills and gifts with graphic design available to local churches trying to implement innovative communications.

Kayla Spears, Communications Strategist, had the dubious honor of trying to make sense of 2015 Annual Conference Proceedings to publish in the Journal. Lagging reports, incompatible formats, and inconsistent data has made that a challenge. Hopefully, 2016 will be better. She launched one last year that was promising, and with more sophisticated tools and additional help from Kat, BWC plans to have a more robust app ready for Annual Conference 2016.

No report of the Commission would be accurate or complete without acknowledging the tireless work of Linda Worthington. Linda served as a staff person and for several years has continued working as a volunteer to provide ongoing support. She is a writer and an astute observer of the work of the UMC. Currently, her passion has been directed toward honoring deceased BWC clergy members by writing sensitive obituaries and memorials to honor their ministries. BWC is indeed fortunate to have this caliber of volunteer.

As if routine tasks were not enough, the staff has been working to fill the new BWC Toolbox with resources for spiritual leadership and congregational formation, community transformation, and church administration. Christie Latona, BWC Regional Strategist, has been providing her expertise to the Communications Staff in filling this resource with invaluable information and suggestions that grow the witness and ministries of the BWC. The Toolbox also includes a sermon studio and an e-course on "safe sanctuary."

The Commission and the Staff are always looking for writers, ideas, contributions, hot news tips, and volunteers to bring new perspectives to their work. Christ calls us to be go and make disciples. As one of our Commission members reminds us, our business as "the church" is all about communication. It's about the spreading the GOOD NEWS! Praise be.

Mittie Quinn, Chair, Commission on Communications

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION (CC)

The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) makes our report this year with an ongoing appreciation for the faithfulness and dedication of local churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. We stand together as a connectional church such that both causes for celebration and the challenges that face us are shared across the connection. Our mutual accountability aids us in our quest to carry out the vision we share.

There is much good news to celebrate as we look back — and ahead. Tools are being developed to allow churches to identify trends and forecasts. This work is being done by CFA in connection with the Mid-Atlantic Foundation. Investment Policy and Audit Guidelines have been implemented to strengthen the stewardship of local churches. A particular highlight of the year has been that the apportionment collection rate is the highest it has been in 15 years. We are thankful people as we bring this year's report before the Conference.

2015 Financial Results (Pre Audit):

2016 OFFICIAL JOURNAL

Income

The apportionment income in 2015 was $14,128,185 with an overall collection rate of 91.66%. For the second straight year, the Conference has set a new record high for the collection rate. We join each local church in celebrating the strong ministry and connection within our Conference that enables us to achieve these goals while focused on bringing Christ’s message to our communities. Our goal for the year was a collection rate of 92.0% and the resulting variance was a shortfall of $52,119 from the budget. The important thing to note was that the collected apportionments were $244,794 higher than the prior year and the relatively small shortfall in apportionments was overcome by positive variances in other parts of the budget.

The collection rates recorded in recent years are as follows:

2015:	91.66%	2010:	90.51%
2014:	90.77%	2009:	89.24%
2013:	89.84%	2008:	87.00%
2012:	89.10%	2007:	87.69%
2011:	90.46%	2006:	90.52%

The number of churches contributing 100% towards their apportionments remained consistently high with 83% of our local churches meeting that standard. The number of churches giving 100% of their apportionments was 82% in 2014, 82% in 2013 and 83% in 2012.

The non-apportionment income in 2015 was $3.1 million. This was $86,000 less than the prior year which resulted in a total income variance that was $150,392 less than budget.

Expenses

The total expenses in 2015 were $17.2 million which was $111,000 (0.6%) less than the expenses in 2014 which helped to offset the negative income variance. The most significant financial pressures were salary and benefit expenses that exceeded budget by $132,000 and annual conference expenses that exceeded total income by $87,000. These were offset by under budget performance in moving expenses at $62,000, legal expenses at $40,000, and retiree medical claims that were $293,000 under budget.

Overall, the resulting net income prior to audit was a negative $2,067 which is 0.01% of budget. This marked a significantly better performance than the $300,000 negative net income reported in 2014 and the $177,000 negative net income reported in 2013.

BWC Apportionment Base:

The expenses of a local church, minus dollars that are spent on mission, outreach, debt service and capital projects comprise what is known as the apportionment base for a church. The apportionment for a local church is derived by multiplying the apportionment base by the benevolence factor that is established by the Annual Conference when the budget is approved.

The apportionment base for the Conference is an accumulated total of the apportionment base that is calculated for each local church. The reported base decreased by 0.8% in 2015. This came on the heels of two years of limited growth in the base and provides a clear picture that the apportionment base has remained essentially flat for the last 5 years.

The apportionment base trends with the year-over-year changes are as follows:

2015:	$ 87,072,403 (-0.8%)
2014:	$ 87,780,638 (+1.1%)
2013:	$ 86,835,908 (+0.8%)
2012:	$ 86,169,509 (-1.3%)

2011:	$ 87,341,343 (-2.1%)
2010:	$ 89,250,232 (+6.1% vs. 2008)
2009:	Not Applicable – Kept the prior year's base and budget
2008:	$ 84,095,541 (+3.0%)
2007:	$ 81,646,157 (+3.8%)
2006:	$ 78,672,464

2017 Budget:

The proposed budget for 2017 introduces a very significant change to how the Conference budget will be funded. Retiree medical benefits are currently funded by a mix of apportionment funds and Board of Pension reserves. Based on the actuarial reports and analysis received by the Board of Pensions this year, the current reserves are deemed sufficient for fully funding the retiree medical benefits in 2017 without apportionment fund contributions.

This positive news from the Board of Pensions comes at the same time that the CFA has been working through the challenges that come with the understanding that the Conference base has been essentially flat for five straight years and the uncertainty that arises from not knowing how much longer the base will remain in that condition. It is in this environment that the CFA is making the recommendation that $1.0 million of the apportionment dollars that formerly were needed to support the retiree medical now be directed as follows: $700,000 to debt reduction; $200,000 to establish a legal reserve fund; and $100,000 to fully fund the current gap in the 10% of annual income reserve fund. Funding these three initiatives will support the long-term sustainability of the Conference in light of the uncertain financial picture presented by the trends in the apportionment base.

Overall, the budget proposal consists of an apportionment income of $14,218,923 which is a reduction of $111,904 or 0.8% from the prior year. This reduction follows the same proportional reduction viewed in the base this year and it supports a continued hold on the benevolence factor at 17.75% and the collection rate at 92.0%. The use of Board of Pension reserves to fully fund the retiree medical expenses results in the non-apportionment income increasing by 56% from $2,829,639 to $4,410,332.

The $1.0 million of debt reduction and reserve funding serve as the most significant factors that increase the overall expense proposal to $18,629,255, an increase of $1,468,790 or 8.6%. For ongoing activities, the budget incorporates a 2.5% increase in salary and a 5% increase in benefits. The General Conference apportionments are set to increase by 2.4% along with Conference mission programs that will increase by 3.0%. The increases are offset by reductions in the Mission Center mortgage of $16,472 and a continued focus on technology driven reductions that will save more than $56,000 in 2017.

The expense budget proposal also includes funding for a new position called the Director of the Center for Clergy Excellence who will be accountable to the Chair and Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM). The focus of the new position is to lead the Conference in identifying, developing, and supporting effective clergy leadership in addition to serving as the official registrar for BOOM and providing oversight and coordination of the credentialing process.

Other Programs/Initiatives:

- The stewardship agencies for the Conference combined their efforts this past year to develop an Investment Policy that will provide general guidance and instruction to their work as they manage the investments of the Conference. The policy is also applicable to local churches as they implement Socially Responsible Investing procedures for their managed funds.

- Several local churches have been working with the Finance Office to improve their tracking and forecasting of church income and expenses. This led to the development of a new Excel-based tool that is available to churches on the Conference website. We are encouraged by the energy churches have put towards these efforts to improve their stewardship of the financial resources that God has provided.

Special Thanks

Rev. Bryant Oskvig, Vice-President of CFA, Chairs the Budget Committee. Many thanks to both Bryant as an able leader and to the committee for their good work, especially their desire to view the budget in terms of a long-term plan for the Conference.

As we come to the close of the quadrennium, particular and heartfelt thanks go to Charlie Moore, Rev. Bryant Oskvig, and David Brandenburg for their dedicated service through CFA to the Baltimore-Washington Conference. They are valued colleagues who have all served well during their tenure as members and leaders of CFA.

Summary

The Baltimore-Washington Conference continues to develop its stewardship so that vital and vibrant communities can be born and prosper, so that our connections at both local and global levels can be strengthened and increased, and so that all local churches can experience the benefits of the connectional system of which we are all a part. We recognize God's presence at work through it all and thank God as well as appreciate the uniqueness of each local church.

The future continues to unfold and we will rise to meet the challenges, strengthened by a willingness to operate in ways both traditional and innovative. We will continue to strengthen the communications about our connectional ministries and how apportionments are used throughout the connection. We will also continue to evaluate the apportionment formula to ensure it is as fair and consistent as it can be for all churches.

CFA's commitment is evident in its continued high attendance, which is a blessing, particularly considering that the members of this council travel from all over the Conference and come from a variety of backgrounds. The Council on Finance and Administration does its work in a spirit that we pray is cooperative, well-focused, and in keeping with the Baltimore-Washington vision to "become fully alive in Christ and make a difference in a diverse and ever-changing world."

JOINT COMMITTEE ON CLERGY MEDICAL LEAVE

The Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave is comprised of nominees from the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, the Board of Ordained Ministry, The Commission on Disability Concerns, and the Cabinet. The Committee maintains contact with clergy who are on medical leave and/or disability, participates in the process by which clergy enter and leave medical leave, and studies issues and recommends solutions with regard to clergy medical leave issues. The Committee has been grateful for the opportunity to undertake these activities during the year.

Annual Conference 2014 directed us to conduct a study on discrimination against persons with mental illness in our Comprehensive Protection Plan, which provides compensation in the case of long-term disability. As a result of this study, we prepared two resolutions for the Annual Conference to send to General Conference, 2016, and we are gratified that these two resolutions were adopted by Annual Conference and submitted to General Conference. One resolution commits the United Methodist Church to oppose such discrimination globally in the world outside the church and the other commits to ending such discrimination within the church. Even in advance of General Conference, the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has taken steps to eliminate such discrimination for clergy, and offer Annual Conferences options to eliminate such discrimination for lay employees.

In response to the General Board's initiative, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits voted funding to provide non-discriminatory, long term disability coverage for lay employees of the Annual Conference.

MID-ATLANTIC UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. (CC)

Investment Management, Endowments, Stewardship Education, Charitable Gift Annuities, and Planned Giving advice are some of the many services available for local churches and agencies through the Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation, Inc. The Foundation is an independent 501(c) nonprofit investment corporation established on July 1, 2010, by merger of the United Methodist Stewardship Foundation of the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the Eastern-Pennsylvania—Peninsula United Methodist Foundation.

The ministry of Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation focuses on being the primary resource for each Conference in five areas:

- 1) Investing long-term assets on behalf of United Methodist churches and agencies.
- 2) Leadership on the creation, management and governance of endowment funds.
- 3) Assistance for individuals in planning gifts through donations, wills or trusts.
- 4) Comprehensive Stewardship educational programs and materials.
- 5) Conference leadership training in financial education and fiscal responsibility.

The Foundation provided numerous educational opportunities and personal church visits open to all. "Cutting edge" financial stewardship materials were provided for every district in the three conferences served.

The Foundation understands that our core business is to make Christian Disciples. We exist to help churches become the best stewards possible of their financial resources and gifts received from God. Due to the high level of interest in its investment services, the Foundation branded the Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation, Inc Genesis Funds as our investment vehicle with the motto "Mission-Driven Investing to Multiply Ministry resources." This is all part of the effort to be the investment manager of choice for all United Methodist Church assets. Some highlights for 2015:

- 1) Launched the Financial Leadership Academy (FLA) which is a two-year program committed to financial educational training for pastors. 62 pastors from all three annual conferences we serve are enrolled in this worthwhile program.
- 2) Provided the distribution of over $6 million in ministry funds to our client churches.
- 3) Sponsored the Rev. Clif Christopher, author of "Not Your Parent's Offering Plate," four times for daylong financial stewardship training.
- 4) Continued to be the fastest growing United Methodist Foundation in the US for the past five years.
- 5) Our investment process continues to place us in the top 10% of United Methodist Church SRI investment managers.
- 6) The average increase in giving indication was 13.5% during Foundation-led Stewardship

Sundays.

7) Sponsored motivational Christian Speaker Pat Williams, Sr VP with the Orlando Magic.

One hundred percent of assets invested through the Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation are managed according to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church as established in the Book of Discipline. ### STRAWBRIDGE SHRINE ASSOCIATION (CC)

Within the geographical bounds of the Baltimore-Washington Conference stands one of the most important sites, if not the preeminent site, in American Methodism – the birthplace of the Methodist movement in America. We receive wonderful support from the Baltimore-Washington Conference – both spiritual and financial – through the Commission on Archives and History. We are humbly grateful for this commitment to our heritage.

The Association owns and maintains the 35 acres and seven buildings that comprise the property where Elizabeth and Robert Strawbridge settled in the early 1760s. Robert is now well accepted as the first preacher in American Methodism.

The year 2015 was a significant one for our organization as we focused on staffing our committees. Our committees include; Finance, Human Resources, Communication, Membership, Property, Program, and Curator's House. We look carefully at the skills required to qualify for membership on the committees and believe we are blessed to have the skills and talents we need to be faithful stewards of the treasure entrusted to us.

At our Annual Meeting, we deepened our understanding of Wesleyan theology when, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Arthur Thomas. John Wesley and George Whitefield “battled for the soul for the soon to be born church” through the auspices of carefully researched reenactors. We want to fully understand the mind of our founder as well as maintain the first facility of his most famous follower- Robert Strawbridge.

The Shrine employs a Curator, Helen Kemp, who, with her husband, Tim, lives on site in our beautiful three-bedroom home which was constructed in the mid-1980s. In addition to leading our many visitors and confirmation classes on tours, Helen curates an increasing number of artifacts and significant items which relate to the growth of American Methodism.

Our Visitor's Center is located on the lower level of the Curator's house, where it struggles to contain our growing collection and larger tour groups. We are engaging a new architect who is helping us as we proceed with Visitor's Center expansion plans. We will soon have a model of that facility to share with visitors and we pray many devoted United Methodists will join in this exciting expansion venture.

Most importantly, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Douglas Tzan, we have written a focused mission statement: The mission of the Strawbridge Shrine is to preserve the foundational legacy of early Methodism and to continue the faith journey so that future generations might know the love of God and participate in God's work in the world.

UNITED METHODIST HISTORICAL SOCIETY (CC)

The year 2016 marks the bicentennial of the death of Bishop Francis Asbury (1745-1816). Multiple major observances of this anniversary are scheduled in his native England and in the United States. Bishop Asbury is sometimes called the “Wesley of the New World” and his death came 25 years to the month after that of John Wesley.

Asbury came to America from England in 1771 and never returned to his native land. He was the first preacher appointed to Baltimore, by the first Conference held in America in 1773. He led the efforts to erect the Lovely Lane Meeting House in Baltimore, where he was ordained at the famous Christmas Conference of 1784 (as a Deacon one day, an Elder the next and as a superintendent or bishop the day after).

For the next 45 years he itinerated throughout the United States, usually at least 6,000 miles a year, mostly on horseback and preaching constantly, for which he is called “The Prophet of the Long Road”. He died in March 1816, on his way to Baltimore to attend General Conference and was first buried in Spotsylvania, Virginia, but his itinerancy was not ended in death.

The General Conference brought his body to Baltimore in May, 1816, and after funeral services attended by over 20,000 people he was interred in a vault under the altar of Eutaw Street Church. In 1852 the General Conference concurred with our Annual Conference in moving the bodies of Bishop Asbury and Bishop John Emory (1789-1835) from Eutaw Street to the lot set aside for preachers at Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

Asbury is commemorated across our conference in 14 active churches christened in his honor and in the statue at 16th and Mt. Pleasant Street in the District of Columbia, authorized by act of Congress and dedicated by President Calvin Coolidge in 1924.

Our society has long been concerned with the condition of the marble Bishops’ Monument at Mt. Olivet cemetery which has been subject to erosion by wind and acid rain in recent years—obliterating the descriptive inscriptions and nearly destroying the surmounting inscription—“Soli Deo Gloria,” which is the inscription of John Wesley’s grave marker at City Road in London.

This year, with the support of the Lovely Lane UMC Trustees and the Conference Trustees, we support the replacement of this monument with a replica in granite, a far more durable material. We have pledged $6,000.00 toward this effort but are hoping to raise these funds through the contributions of individuals, groups and churches. I strongly encourage all of you to support this effort through your contributions.

For 160 years, our Society has been dedicated to gathering, preserving, protecting and sharing our United Methodist heritage. Last fall, our 159th annual meeting was the first to be held in the District of Columbia. We thank the people of Asbury UMC, Washington, for their hospitality, and especially Lonise and Floyd Robinson, who retired from our governing board at that meeting. I also want to thank the members of our Society’s committees and briefly highlight their work in the last year.

Finance Committee

Final full transfer of invested assets of the Society to management by the Financial Consulate (of Hunt Valley, Md.) and adoption of appropriate management goals and stabilization of income flow. Most of these invested funds are the result of planned giving and legacies from members. Gentle Reader, as you may be able, have you included The Historical Society in your planned giving?

Depletion of invested funds to maintain needed staff levels in the past makes replacement and growth of reserves an imperative. This year, our support of the Asbury Bicentennial effort is expected to again tax our resources.

Development Committee

This committee has a broad spectrum of ideas for raising the profile of the Society in the church and beyond and of sharing our mission with others recognizing that the ultimate goal of our efforts depends upon increasing the membership of The United Methodist Historical Society.

The Development Committee, in close cooperation with Lovely Lane Church, has also been considering appropriate observances of the 200th Anniversary of the death of Francis Asbury. We are also seeking to cooperate with the British Methodist Conference in their series of Asbury celebrations.

Last fall the inaugural Edwin Schell Memorial Lecture was organized, with the first lecturer being Marian Warshawsky, author of "John Franklin Goucher: Citizen of the World."

Curatorial Committee

This Committee deals with issues of the Museum and collections. Because these are areas of interface between the Society and Lovely Lane Church, the Committee Chair (Curator of the Society) is the pastor of Lovely Lane Church. Last year we congratulated Rev. Nancy Nedwell on her retirement, after 16 years at Lovely Lane, and welcomed Rev. Travis Knoll in this role.

Four years ago, the immediate problem was addressing asbestos tile breaking up throughout the museum and library space. We addressed the first problem through encapsulation and carpeting while, at the same time, reconfiguring displays and painting the public areas. Cosmetically, this made the space far more appealing. However, the climate remained unacceptable for housing library and museum collections.

This year initial steps have been taken to address these conditions. Fluorescent lighting has been replaced in the corridor between rooms with more appropriate lighting that we hope to use throughout the area. The church, at its expense, installed an air conditioner in the Schell Room and will be investigating options for extending air conditioning to the entire space.

In conclusion, let me thank all of our members for their interest and generosity. May we all be blessed as we seek to continue this ministry of memory in the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

Emora T. Brannan, President and Conference Historian

INSTITUTIONAL REPORTS

BOARD OF CHILD CARE (CC)

Board of Child Care's Executive Leadership Team is implementing the early stages of a comprehensive, three-year strategic plan. Our goal is to transition BCC from a care provider focused largely on residential, to an impact maker on a community and regional level.

To do that, we have thoughtfully changed the metrics, methods, and mission for the Board of Child Care. Our new purpose statement is: enriching communities, one family at a time. This replaces our previous mission and vision statements and provides BCC greater clarity on its future initiatives.

We have re-imagined what residential, treatment foster care, special and early education, and mental health services should look like. Part of that discussion was a thoughtful conversation about the core values we embody in both our workforce and our programs. Ultimately, we selected these four new core values to guide our daily actions and decisions: safety as a mindset; act with integrity; listen and respond with empathy; and impact drives lasting change.

We offer sincere appreciation to the congregations and individuals who have been prayerfully supporting our work in so many ways. Some examples include:

- Inviting our staff to preach and share about our mission;
- Touring our programs and volunteering for projects;
- Contributing financially or via gifts in kind, especially during the Christmas season;
- Sending birthday cards each month to our residential program participants;
- Dropping off boxes and boxes of cookies and snacks for our growing teenagers;
- ...and countless other examples of Christ-like hospitality and love.

Thank you Baltimore-Washington Conference – with your help we have accomplished a great deal this year. But there is still much to do.

We invite and encourage you to engage with our mission. Get started at boardofchildcare.org by coming for a campus tour, reading our latest annual report, or signing up to receive monthly pictures and program updates.

With immense gratitude,

Laurie Anne Spagnola, President and CEO

DREW UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

A Cohering Vision: Curriculum, Community, Co-Curricular Initiatives

After much collaborative discussion, discernment, and evaluation of the current state of theological education, those of us who lead, teach, and support Drew Theological School have launched on an ambitious course. Nearly 150 years after our founding, we envision a future as bright as the best eras in our past. I am pleased to share with you here the concrete steps we have taken — and are taking — to bring this future to light.

First, our efforts have been attentive to the history of Drew, in particular its Methodist roots, its long commitment to the Church and its ministries, and draw from this wellspring for inspiration and direction. Also, we have honored our progress to achieve denominational, ethnic, gender, and racial diversity in our faculty and student body. This rich diversity has become both a hallmark of Drew and an expansion of our wellspring. Forces beyond our campus—notably, that the reasons for pursuing a theological education and expected outcomes are shifting dramatically—further press the need for us to align our vision and its supporting systems with our communal reality.

Given this imperative, we are focused on the three “C’s” of our cohering vision: redesigning our curriculum, strengthening our community of learning, and deepening training through revived co-curricular initiatives. These three aspect of a Drew Theological School education will work together to enable us to to empower creative thought and courageous action to advance justice, peace and love of God, neighbor and the earth—as well as uniquely position us to lead evolving expressions of Christianity.

Designing distinct pathways from curriculum to vocation

To remain meaningful and offer the greatest value to our students, each of the six degree paths that we offer must be as distinct as the ministry to which it leads. For example, our Master of Arts in Ministry program, which forms students for the broadest spectrum of theologically-informed advocacy and ministry, or our DMin program, which has become the “new” terminal vocational degree, must be custom rebuilt for current and emerging student needs and outcomes. This also holds true for the Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, PhD, and, most critically, the Master of Divinity programs.

We have achieved our roadmap for curricular change through a period of intentional discernment, which included discussion with consultants, and with colleagues at peer institutions, who led curricular formation retreats with the faculty; through the discernment and guidance of our faculty, and with the generous financial support of the Jesse Ball duPont Fund. Our next steps include a comprehensive analysis of pedagogical and technological trends in theological education, enrollment, and outcomes. Our redesigned curricular paths will be announced in the fall of 2017, concurrent with the 150th anniversary of the founding of Drew Theological School and the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

Student experiences rooted in community

Despite the increase in students pursuing their education through evening classes and online enrollment, we remain committed to the on-campus experience of community. This begins with a student-centered educational experience that better attends to the scheduling needs of students, offers broader course content and availability, and more intentionally integrates vocational or career aspirations with coursework.

The success of these efforts are inextricably linked to scholarship support. Only by removing the financial barriers for students pursuing vocations can we hope to attract and retain the most promising students and free them to learn and grow in community. Related to tuition support is the need for more affordable and modernized housing for those students who choose to live on campus. Together, scholarship support and housing relief will also unburden our students from unsustainable debt.

Fostering innovation in ministry and the work of Spirit-filled justice

To round out changes in our curriculum and on-campus learning experiences, we are also reviving co-curricular initiatives. The existing Center for Lifelong Learning will be recast as the new Center for Innovation and Leadership in Ministry and serve students, alumni and others seeking to find creative and courageous approaches to revitalizing ministry. Here, programming will train pastoral leaders, in particular, for service in rapidly changing church environments, as well as position them to lead fearlessly and prophetically.

Our second co-curricular center will be an expansion of the current Communities of Shalom. This initiative will focus on action, advocacy, and social justice work in both pastoral and lay environments. Projects will range from student interns supporting the work of A Future with Hope in our home state of New Jersey, advancing social justice in non-profit settings across the country and around the world, initiatives which seek to transform and end systemic poverty, expansion of our Partnership for Religion and Education in Prisons (PREP) program, and teaching residencies at Drew for prophetic leaders.

Success so far through our One and All Campaign

As the 14th dean of Drew Theological School, I am deeply committed to continuing our long and distinguished legacy. To this end, our vision is innovative, forward-looking, and to the various constituencies we serve. I fully subscribe to the inimitable words of Antonio Machado, that “we make the road by walking.” The road to this bright future we envision will be made by the dedication, determination and generosity of those who love Drew and believe in its future.

Our vision is coming to light, in part, because of the generosity of our many alumni-donors and friends. Our One and All fundraising campaign has raised more than $12 million to date for the Theological School and has seed-funded many of our burgeoning efforts.

Also, I encourage our alumni to embrace your power of influence to help grow philanthropic support for Drew Theological School. Many of our largest gifts have come from the influence of alumni, particularly pastors who serve in our church communities.

Yes, the needs ahead are many, yet our hope is high for a bright future for Drew Theological School. The road is made by walking. Let's walk it together.

The Reverend Dr. Javier A. Viera
Dean of the Theological School
Professor of Pastoral Theology

RESOLUTIONS OF THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Resolution to Amend the Membership of the Nominations Committee

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: This resolution is to make clear the members of the Nominations Committee and to encourage a balance of laity and clergy.

Submitted by: Jen Ihlo, Chair, Rules Committee

Resolution:

Membership of the Baltimore-Washington Conference Commission on Nominations shall include the following:

- Chair person, selected by the Bishop;
- Conference Secretary;
- Director of Connectional Ministries;
- District Superintendents (DSs);
- One Clergy person from each District, selected by the DSs;
- District Lay Leaders;
- Conference Lay Leader;
- President of United Methodist Men;
- President of United Methodist Women;
- One layperson named by the Commission on Disability Concerns;
- One youth, named by the Conference Council on Youth Ministry;
- One young adult layperson, named by the Young Adult Council; and
- Two at-large lay persons, selected by the Conference Lay Leader, following consultation with the District Lay Leaders.

Loans to Pastors, Church Staff and Volunteers

Submitted by: Rev. Deborah L. Scott, Mill Creek Parish UMC, Derwood, MD
Rev. Sarah A. Schlieckert, Arden UMC, Martinsburg, WV

Whereas, the sudden death of their beloved pastor caused one of our Conference local churches to find that a financial arrangement, made in good faith, to cover the down payment cost for a house purchased by its appointed pastor was considered an “excess benefit” as defined by the Internal Revenue Code below:

Certain types of educational, religious and other tax-exempt, nonprofit organizations need to be careful that their leaders do not receive “excess benefits.” This can occur when a person who is defined by law as an “insider” (in this case pastor) receives unwarranted compensation or a low-interest loan or pays the organization below-market rent. Insiders who receive such excess benefits (as well as organization managers who knowingly approve “excess benefits transactions”) could be subject to “intermediate sanctions”: federal excise taxes that impose a personal liability. Moreover, the organizations themselves might be affected adversely if the excess benefits are revealed to donors or the public, which they often are.

Nonprofit Organizations

“Intermediate sanctions” can be imposed on two types of organizations: Section 501(c)(3) organizations (religious, educational, charitable, scientific, literary, amateur sports) and section 501(c)(4) organizations (civic leagues, social welfare organizations and local associations of employees). Richard V. Smith, Sibson Consulting 1/7/2011

Whereas, this benefit, according to the conference Chancellor, Thomas Starnes, “is prohibited by Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code and can result in the imposition of substantial penalties, primarily on the person who received the alleged excess benefit, but potentially also on ‘any manager’ of the tax-exempt organization that participated in the transaction.”

Now, therefore be it resolved, that local churches in the Baltimore-Washington Conference shall not loan or create any sort of legal entity, “i.e. Partnership Agreement,” that could be construed as offering a financial or other arrangement that may be defined as an “excess benefit” by the Internal Revenue Code, to any appointed pastor, hired church, or volunteer.

Be it further resolved, that all local churches that currently are, or may be, in such a good faith arrangement shall report this to their District Superintendent and immediately begin work to resolve and end this arrangement as soon as possible, so as not to jeopardize the tax exempt status of any local church.

Policy requiring the district superintendent to review a church’s annual financial statements with an incoming church’s appointed pastor prior to the pastor’s assumption of duties and perform a periodic review with all continuing pastors.

Submitted by: Rev. Deborah L. Scott, Mill Creek Parish UMC, Derwood, MD

Recognizing that a change in pastoral appointment is an ideal opportunity for a church to do a substantial review of its financial and membership reporting, District Superintendents shall advise pastors who will be leaving their churches to ensure that all the church’s financial and other records are current.

1. For those clergy who are retiring, within 30 days after they announce their retirement, they shall ensure that copies of the church’s audit report for at least the last three years, three years of the end-of-year Profit and Loss statements, balance sheets and budget are compiled into a format to be shared with the incoming pastor, and upon request, with the District Superintendent.
2. For clergy being appointed to a new charge, the church’s audit report, Profit and Loss Statements, balance sheets and budget shall be gathered by the outgoing pastor and shared at the out-take meeting with the District Superintendent and later shared with the new pastor.
3. Each local church shall update their detailed church profile annually before their charge conference meeting. These profiles shall be presented to the new pastor upon their arrival.
4. An overview form, providing details of a church’s finances, shall be included with the other forms churches must complete at the time of a pastoral transition. The bishop’s office and District Superintendents shall ensure that this new form is created, introduced, filled out, and made available to the incoming pastor.

5. The compensation packages for incoming clergy shall be shared with the chairs of the finance and staff-parish relations committees, who shall sign a form signifying their assent to, and support of, this compensation.
6. Best practices in how District Superintendents and pastors can ensure smooth clergy transitions, including items that concern a church's finances, shall be discussed at the Baltimore-Washington Conference's annual Transitions Workshop.
7. Superintendents shall develop a process on their districts to ensure that they meet with pastors at least once every two years for a financial review to ensure that both have a clear understanding of the church's financial status.

Passed Legislation and Motions that Affect Policy

1. Motion, including amendments, passed June 3, 2016:

A CFA/Health Representative [shall] host a meeting by September 1, 2016 and annually thereafter to address the clergy couples' concerns surrounding health care and make sure all are properly enrolled in one health care plan. It shall remain the policy of the BWC that clergy couples with children shall have the option to remain on one policy.

2. Motion passed on June 3, 2016:

To gather our rules, policies, and procedures into one place and bring and distribute them to each member [of annual conference] before the start of business of the 2017 Annual Conference. These would also be placed on the BWC website.

3. Motion passed on June 3, 2016:

All resolutions must be on the agenda before the last full day of plenary session of Annual Conference so that they can be perfected and acted upon.

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP

“With all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ’s gift. Therefore, it is said, ‘When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people.’ ... The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.”
Ephesians 4:2-8; 11-13 (NRSV)

If a member of a board, commission, committee, or council is absent from two consecutive meetings without an acceptable reason, that person shall cease to be a member.

BISHOP SPOUSES

EUNICE JONES MATHEWS 1914-2016

Eunice Jones was born April 29, 1914, in Sitapur, British India, the daughter of the renowned missionary and evangelist, E. Stanley Jones and his wife Mabel Lossing Jones. She grew up in India where her mother founded and led a school for boys. Her first language was Hindustani, which she learned from the cooks and helpers around the house and school.

She was first home-schooled than attended the Wellesley Girls School and for high school, Woodstock in the hill station of Missouri. College was first at the Oberlin College Music Conservatory; then the Crandon Institute in Rome. She completed her college at American University in Washington, D.C.

After taking a typing course at Baylor Secretarial School in Dubuque, Iowa, she became her father's assistant and secretary. She edited his 25 books. Her father's writings changed the world, influencing such thinkers as Mahatma Ghandi and the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

In 1939, she met the Rev. Jim Mathews, a young American missionary. He went to hear her famous father speak and admitted at his first meeting with Eunice he was "smitten when she walked into the room and into my life." They married in 1940 and began a partnership of love, service and faith.

During World War II while her husband was in the US Army, she was a typist for the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), the forerunner to the CIA.

In 1946, their first child, Anne, was born. They had two more children and made their home in Montclair, New Jersey. Jim Mathews had been elected General Secretary of Missions for the Methodist Church.

As mission leaders in the church, their work took them to every state in the U.S. and six continents. Together, they spoke to presidents, Queen Elizabeth II and Pope Paul VI.

In 1960, Jim Mathews went on a trip to the (then) Belgian Congo. When he returned home to New Jersey, Eunice broke the news to him: he'd been elected a bishop in absentia. He was appointed to the Boston area.

In 1972, Jim and Eunice Mathews moved to the Baltimore-Washington Area, where he was assigned to serve as bishop. As an American citizen with no hometown, Mayor Donald Schaefer made Eunice a citizen of Baltimore.

After the bishop retired in 1980, Bishop and Eunice Mathews continued to serve as needed in a variety of places, including Zimbabwe. He finally retired in 1996. He died in 2010.

In 2004 on her 90th birthday, Mathews was called before the General Conference in Pittsburgh so that United Methodists from around the world could wish her Happy Birthday.

In response, Mathews simply said, she did not want to be defined by her relationships. "I am free to be myself," she said. She carried with her throughout the years a scriptural mantra. "It is not I, but Christ within me."

"She saw in me what I did not always see in myself in my early days of ministry," said Bishop

Marcus Matthews. "She was brave. She spoke truth even when it placed her at odds with others. She was a person of integrity. She was never silent when it came to issues of justice."

She wrote "Drug Abuse: Summons to Community Action," and co-authored with her father, the book "The Divine Yes." She was elected as the first female vice-president of the Methodist General Commission on Archives and History.

She was predeceased by her husband and, in 2014, a daughter, Janice Mathews Stromsen..

Survivors include daughter Anne Mathews Younes, son Stanley Mathews, their spouses, six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Eunice Jones Mathews, the wife of the late Bishop James K. Mathews, died Feb. 27, 2016, after a fall that left her bedridden. A Celebration of Life and Resurrection Service was held March 19 at Metropolitan Memorial UMC. Bishop Marcus Matthews participated and Bishop Susan Morrison gave the eulogy. Morrison called her "the last of Methodist royalty."

An inurnment service was held in the church's columbarium for Eunice Jones Mathews, her husband Bishop James K. Mathews and daughter Janice Mathews Stromsen.

CLERGY

MILTON WALTER BENNY
1931-2016

Milton Walter Benny was born March 10, 1931, in Baltimore, a son of the late Milton Walter, Sr. and Mary Edella Lewis Benny.

From 1966 until he retired, Benny served many churches. These included: Ellerslie until 1973, Messiah UMC in Glen Burnie until 1978, 1978-1980 at Wesley UMC in Baltimore, from 1980-1986 at Wesley Grove UMC in Woodfield, 1986-1991 at Fort Washington UMC. In 1991 he moved to the Mt. Gilead-Patapsco Charge in Reisterstown but took a Leave of Absence a year later. He retired in 1993.

Benny was a life member of DeMolay of Baltimore and a member of Ministerial Minister Associations locally and in Baltimore.

Surviving are his wife, Barbara Ann Fern Benny of a 35-year-plus blended marriage, four children, 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren

Rev. Milton Walter Benny, Jr., died Jan. 2, 2016, at his home in Mercersburg, Pa. He was a retired Associate Member of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. The Rev. W. David Kent officiated at a memorial service that was held Jan. 6, 2016.

MORRIS HARVEY BRATTON
1924-2015

Morris Harvey Bratton was born in Cleburne, Texas, Jan. 20, 1924, to Harvey Bratton and Anne Boulware Bratton.

Bratton served in the Navy during WWII, and returned to Southwestern University to complete his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1947. He then went to Yale Divinity School, where he graduated in 1951, and joined the Southwest Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church.

On June 15, 1948, he married Nettie Ruth Brucks. They had two children who survive.

Bratton served as pastor for several churches: as a student to East Village Methodist in Monroe, Connecticut; then several churches in Texas. He also served as the Program Coordinator and Bible Instructor at the Methodist Student Center at the University of Texas, the Director of Religious Life at Iowa Wesleyan College in Mount Pleasant, Iowa, and as the President of Washington International College in Washington, D.C. In addition, he worked in several capacities for the Peace Corps, training volunteers and staff around the world. His final employment was with the Baltimore-Washington Conference, working for the renewal and revitalization of local congregations.

A stellar athlete, both at the high school and college levels, he played football at Southwestern University in both the 1943 and 1944 Sun Bowl championship games.

Bratton loved the church. From the time he was a young man until he was no longer able, he participated in the life of the Methodist Church wherever he was. He worked for justice, taking to heart the scriptural entreaty of Micah 6:8: "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, love kindness and to walk humbly with your God." From his days working for equality through the civil rights movement to his time supporting those who opposed senseless war to his time standing for economic justice throughout the world, his humble sense of humor and stubborn optimism allowed those around him to maximize their own longings for peace and for justice.

He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Nettie Ruth, his son, Chris Brucks Bratton, and daughter, Brenda Bratton Blom; seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren. He is also survived by a bonus daughter, Barbara Bratton and a bonus son, Appletree (Frank) Rodden.

MARGARET B. "PEGGY" GROSECLOSE
1945-2015

Margaret B. "Peggy" Groseclose was born Dec. 25, 1945, in Cleveland, Ohio, the daughter of the late Albert and Margaret (Krusling) Brancae.

She served as Senior Associate Pastor at Bel Air UMC from 1990 until she retired in 2008. After retirement she served at Mt. Carmel Chapel in Bel Air and for two years at Union UMC in Baldwin.

Her son, the Rev. Win Groseclose, writes:

“She was a remarkable lady whose service inside and outside of the church touched more lives than one might care to count. Her passion was people and seeing them grow in faith relationally with one another as well as with Jesus Christ.

“Among her personal passions was the re-starting of Mount Carmel Chapel in Abingdon, where she regularly preached and served as an extension of her work at Bel Air UMC. She also proved, along with her mother-in-law, Virginia Groseclose, to be a formative influence upon her son, who would later follow her into the ordained ministry.

“As that son, reflecting back on his mother’s walk with Christ, the Maryland Walk to Emmaus Movement served a central role in shaping and nurturing the evangelistic faith that would become so evident in her life (as well as that of her husband, Bill, and son). She served as a Spiritual Director for numerous women’s weekends and was regularly a part of Emmaus gatherings. But not only was her faith nurtured through this movement, God used her to nurture many women from outside her local congregation.

“After her retirement and move to western Pennsylvania to be closer to her son, it was not long before God began to use her again, serving as a counselor to several women whose husbands had been abusive and providing a place of refuge for them to stay. Her willingness to be used by God in whatever context she found herself in was a mark of a true disciple of Jesus Christ.

“Her smile and warmth are missed not only by her family, but also by those who came to know her, even for a short time. Even though members of my own congregation only came to know her in the last year of her life, they have often commented to me as to how they miss her ...”

Survivors include her husband of 38 years, William T. Groseclose; their five children, Win Groseclose of New Sewickley Township, Pa., daughter Sarah Bowlin of Martinsburg, W.Va., and David Groseclose of Laurel, two step-daughters, Patricia James of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Paula Reichenstein of Plano, Texas, their spouses and 10 grandchildren.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

Report on the Combined Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Affiliate) (collectively referred to as the Conference), which comprise the Combined Statements of Financial Position as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related Combined Statements of Activities and Cash Flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Combined Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT, CONTINUED

We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As more fully described in Note 8 to the combined financial statements, the Conference accounts for post-retirement health benefit obligations on a pay-as-you-go basis. In our opinion, accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the funded status of the post-retirement health benefit obligations be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. The effects on the combined financial statements of the preceding practice are not reasonably determinable.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the combined financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Activities

The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (BWC) was formed to provide for the promotion of the Christian faith, missionary, and benevolent causes.

BWC Borrower, LLC was formed to finance, manage, and maintain property and operate a management business for this purpose. BWC is the sole member of BWC Borrower, LLC.

The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Episcopal Office) was formed to manage many aspects of BWC, including presiding over sessions, overseeing fiscal and program operations, and ensuring fair process.

Principles of Combination

The combined financial statements include the accounts of BWC, BWC Borrower, LLC and the Episcopal Office (collectively referred to as the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Accounting Standards Codification

All references in the combined financial statements to the Codification refer to the Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. The Codification is the single source of authoritative GAAP in the United States.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying combined financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America on the accrual basis of accounting, whereby revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Basis of Presentation

Under the Codification, the Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted.

Unrestricted net assets are assets that are neither permanently restricted nor temporarily restricted by donor-imposed stipulations. These resources include:

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE

- Operating – to support operations
- Property – restricted for property acquisitions
- Medical Benefits – designated by the Board to fund medical premiums
- Designated for Loans – to fund low interest loans to the United Methodist Churches
- Designated for Post-Retirement Health Benefits – to fund post-retirement health benefits

Temporarily restricted net assets are contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled by use for specified purposes.

Permanently restricted net assets are contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the Conference's actions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Conference maintains its cash in financial institutions which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Conference believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Funds Due to Others

Amounts represent proceeds from the sale of a church property, which is due to the Greater Washington District.

Investments

Under the Codification, investments are recorded at fair value. Investments received as gifts and bequests are recorded at fair value at the gift date. To adjust

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE

the carrying value of the investments, realized and unrealized gains and losses are reported in the Combined Statements of Activities. See Note 3 for further discussion of the valuation of investments.

The Conference invests in a professionally managed portfolio that contains stocks and bonds of publicly traded companies, mutual funds, and pooled investments. Such investments are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with such investments and the level of uncertainty related to the changes in value of such investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near-term would materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the combined financial statements.

Other Receivables

Other receivables include amounts due from individuals and organizations related to the Conference for pension and medical costs. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, management recorded an allowance for uncollectible accounts of $729,182 and $678,008, respectively.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment greater than $2,500 are recorded at cost if purchased or fair value at the date of the donation if gifted. Lesser amounts are expensed. Depreciation is determined using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

Apportionments

The Conference receives a significant portion of its revenue in the form of apportionments from local churches that are members of the Conference. Apportionments are accepted from the local churches; however, they are not a legal obligation. As such, apportionments are recognized as revenue when received, since the amount to be received is undeterminable until paid by the local churches. The Conference's apportionment policy is to include apportionments received by Tuesday following the second Sunday subsequent to the date of the accompanying Combined Statements of Financial Position. Apportionments are used to fund mission and ministries of the Conference and General Church World Services.

Medical Payments

The Conference receives premiums from local churches that are members of the Conference. These premiums are used to pay for medical insurance for clergy and lay employees of the Conference.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Contributions

In accordance with the Not-for-Profit Entities Revenue Recognition Topic of the Codification, contributions received are recorded as either unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted, either temporarily or permanently, by the donor. The Conference's policy is to utilize temporarily restricted support against qualifying expenses as they are incurred.

Camping Registration and Events

The Conference receives registration fees for camps owned and operated by the Conference. The Conference also hosts numerous seminars and conferences throughout the year, for which registration fees are collected by the Conference. Revenue is recognized in the year such services and events occur.

Program Expense

Apportioned funds categories represent the following:

- Discipleship – All department staffing costs for the Councils on Ministries and Human Resource Development as well as the activities of the ministries, missions performed within the Conference, establishing new churches, growth of existing churches, activities and programs undertaken to develop both clergy and lay religious education, and spiritual enrichment of all clergy and lay persons within the Conference
- Stewardship - All financial and administrative components of the Conference, including the treasury function, trustees, pension and health benefits for clergy and lay employees and costs of the Conference Center offices
- Episcopal Office – Costs for departments linked directly to the Bishop's office
- General Church and Jurisdictional Apportionment – Funds collected by the Conference from local churches and designated by the Conference to send to General Church and World Services

Subsequent Events

The Conference has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the combined financial statements through May 18, 2016, the date the combined financial statements were available to be issued.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE

2. INCOME TAXES

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from filing tax returns as a religious organization. In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Conference is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code.

The Conference follows the provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes under the Income Taxes Topic of the Codification. The Codification requires the evaluation of tax positions, which include maintaining its tax-exempt status and the taxability of any unrelated business income, and does not allow recognition of tax positions which do not meet a "more-likely-than-not" threshold of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Management does not believe it has taken any tax positions that would not meet this threshold.

3. VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS

Investments at December 31, 2015 and 2014 consisted of the following:

	2015	2014

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Codification establishes a hierarchical disclosure framework, which prioritizes and ranks the level of market price observability used in measuring investments and other financial instruments at fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 – Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date. The Conference considers its investments in common stocks and mutual funds to be Level 1 investments.

Level 2 – Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date, and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies. The Conference considers corporate bonds, government securities, certain nonpublic mutual funds, and pooled investments to be Level 2 investments.

Level 3 – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The Conference does not currently hold any Level 3 investments.

In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may be categorized into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, an investment's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Conference's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the investment. There were no changes in these methodologies during the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Common Stock and Bond Mutual Funds: Valued at quoted prices in an active market

Nonpublic Mutual Funds: Valued at the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

Corporate Bonds: Valued based on stated interest rates and quality rating

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE

Pooled Investments: Investments through the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church (General Board), which consist of diversified nonpublic mutual funds and are valued using the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

The methods described above produce a fair value that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The table below presents the balances of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the hierarchy as of December 31, 2015:

	Level 1	Level 2	Total

6. NOTES PAYABLE

The Conference has a note payable to the Board of Childcare of the United Methodist Church. Borrowings bear interest at 3.25%, subject to adjustment at specified dates. The note requires quarterly principal and interest payments through June 30, 2029. The note is collateralized by the conference center in Maple Lawn, Maryland and the West River Methodist Center property. The balance on this note was $5,683,000 and $6,096,333 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Future maturities at December 31, 2015 are as follows:

Thereafter	3,616,335
	$ 5,683,000

7. PENSION EXPENSE

The Conference participates in three multi-employer pension plans which are administered by the General Board. The Conference provides pension benefits for members of the clergy under the three plans. Services provided prior to January 1, 1982 are covered by a defined benefit plan (Pre-82 Plan). The General Board estimated the Conference's portion of the Pre-82 Plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $26,000,000, and the total plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $124,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 1981 are covered by the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference did not contribute any funds to MPP during 2015 or 2014. The General Board estimated MPP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $249,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 2006 are covered under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference contributed approximately $2,520,000 and $3,125,000 to CRSP for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The General Board estimated CRSP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $55,000,000.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE

The risks of participating in a multi-employer plan are different from a single-employer plan in the following aspects:

- a. Assets contributed to the multi-employer plan by one employer may be used to provide benefits to employees of other participating employers.
- b. If a participating employer stops contributing to the plan, the unfunded obligations of the plan may be borne by the remaining participating employers.
- c. If the Conference chooses to stop participating in its multi-employer plan, the Conference may be required to pay the plan an amount based on the unfunded status of the plan, referred to as a withdrawal liability.

Lay employees of the Conference are covered by a defined contribution plan (Plan). The level and funding of retirement benefits to individual participants of the Plan are determined annually by the Conference within certain guidelines established by the General Board. The Conference contributed approximately $320,000 and $313,000 to the Plan for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

8. POST-RETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFITS

Post-retirement health benefits for all retired personnel and their spouses, widows, and widowers are provided under a discretionary plan administered by the General Board. The Conference accounts for the obligation on a pay-as-you-go basis, and the cost of post-retirement health benefits was approximately $1,220,000 and $1,264,000 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. GAAP requires the funded status of post-retirement obligations, representing the difference between plan assets and accumulated post-retirement obligations, be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. At December 31, 2015, using the most recent actuarial report available, the accumulated benefit obligation for post-retirement health benefits is approximately $35,000,000, at an assumed discount rate of 4.05%. For 2015, the assumed annual rate of increase in the cost of covered health care benefits is 6.50%. It is assumed to decrease gradually to 5% in 2019 and remain at that level thereafter. A one percentage point increase or decrease in the assumed health care cost trend rate would have an approximate 12% to 15% effect on the accumulated benefit obligation.

Year Ending December 31, 2016	$ 76,955
2017	64,329
2018	32,640
	$ 173,924

11. ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Conference's permanent endowment consists of various donor restricted funds established to provide a source of income for ongoing donor advised program expenses. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of Relevant Law

The Conference has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA), enacted in Maryland on April 14, 2009, as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund, and (c) the change in unrealized gains and losses of invested endowments to the extent allocations do not reduce the endowment value below the original corpus. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the donor's stipulations or unrestricted net assets.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters

The Conference's investment policy is to provide a common investment vehicle, which will generate a stable and continuously growing income stream to support operations. The overall investment goal is to preserve the purchasing power of the future stream of endowment payout for those funds. Other goals include maximizing return within reasonable and prudent levels of risk and maximizing the value of the endowment while maintaining liquidity needed to support spending in prolonged down markets. The Conference seeks a return on investment consistent with levels of investment risk that are prudent and reasonable given medium- to long-term capital market conditions and investment objectives.

Endowment Spending Policy

The Conference follows the specific spending requirements of each endowment and, if there are no donor stipulations, the income is used for the purpose and mission of the Conference.
